Farewell to Rambert – valued rep at Pepia Est

Wine school in Holland beckons.....

Pepia Est bids Rambert de Lange farewell & goodluck

By Jan Falcone
Special to Aruba Today

Pepia Est N.V. is a well-known wine importer in Aruba, and Rambert de Lange has been part of the sales team, ever since coming to work as an intern with the company in 2005. Starting out with a large enough territory, that of the downtown market (all hotels & restaurants), he was moved, after a year, to a much larger territory, that of providing both the high-rise and low-rise hotels with wine service. This happens to be the largest and most important market for Pepia Est N.V. As well as sales, he quickly took on other responsibilities, that of ordering, marketing and even delivery.

One of Rambert's specialties was officiating at wine tastings and conducting training of personnel for almost all of the hotels and restaurants in Aruba. He liked wine very much before arriving in Aruba, but with his extensive experience at Pepia Est, he now has a much greater love and appreciation for it, and the whole experience has inspired him to do a more extensive study in wine, which will take one year. In Holland, the special wine study is called "Vinoloog".

After this year of wine study, he will go back to work, and Aruba could be one of the choices to look for a job. But other destinations interest him also, so he will see where the world takes him.

On Friday evening, owners Herdy ten Lohuis and Michael van den Berg, together with his colleagues threw a nice send-off party in Pepia Est's bodega. He enjoyed very much the company of good people, clients, and friends with lots of good wine, and superb catering by Rumba restaurant. He thanks Michael, Herdy and his colleagues for years of good experiences and learning.

Good luck, Rambert! □

Vinda de Souza celebrates birthday at South Beach Lounge

PALM BEACH – On Monday evening, one of Aruba's favorite lawyers Vinda de Souza, celebrated her birthday in the cozy atmosphere of the South Beach Lounge in Palm Beach. Guests enjoyed cocktails, conversations and cake in honor of Vinda.

This charming open air lounge was conceived with the thought of utilizing some of Aruba's greatest assets; the gentle trade-winds and a breathtaking night sky. Both contributed to a unique island ambiance of this gathering place with a trendy South Beach, Miami, feel.

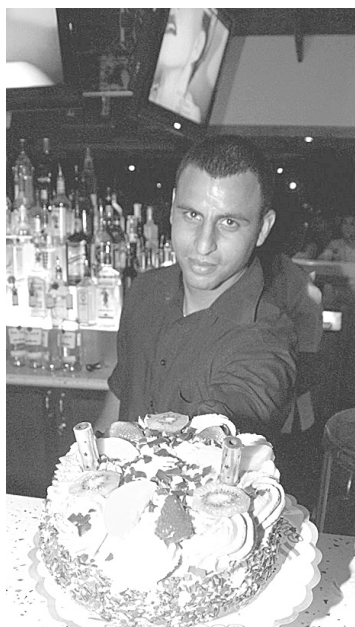

Cozy dining tables and comfy couches allow patrons to linger over a variety of island concoctions or their favorite exotic martini while enjoying a selection of tapas, which delectably compliment the setting and cocktail menu. Local entrepreneur Kanaan Baroud, who developed the concept bar reports that sushi and other oriental specialties can also be ordered from the House of Japan when it opens. All dishes may be enjoyed in the al fresco terrace of the South Beach Lounge.

South Beach Lounge opens daily at 4:00 p.m. till midnight, Mondays through Fridays, and till the wee hours on weekends. Refresh at the bar after work, or following a long day at the beach, then stroll along Palm Beach's busy strip, or shop at the South Beach Centre boutiques, come back for a bite or delicious dinner, and watch the world go by. South Beach Lounge offers a front row seat! □

Fast and furious windsurfing at Sorobon, Bonaire

Lots of wind on the first day of the World Championships Slalom

BONAIRE - Two entire rounds of great windsurfing slalom races, with four to six starts per category, were the result of a day of powerful wind at Sorobon, Bonaire, where the World Championships Slalom are underway. Divided into Juniors (under 17), Youth (under 20), Masters and Seniors, there is a group of 86 very dedicated, experienced and really good international sailors, who will be showing off everything they have got in the coming few days. During the weekend, the freestylers will have the aqua-blue stage for themselves, and Aruba hopes that Sarah-Quita Offringa, world champion freestyle, will be in top form by then. Slalom racers from Aruba include Nicole van der Velden, Eline Marchena, Mathias Verploeg, Nik van den Eerenbeemt, Rick Cecilia and young champion Steven Lageveen, who recently stunned everyone when he won gold.

Aruba's sailors were not among the top three of the twenty-six Juniors, who sailed last Monday, however. Luigi Romano from Italy came in first place, followed by Morane Demont from Martinique (2), France and Radoslaw Kurcowski (3). Nicole van der Velden is currently holding a very impressive fifth place, followed by Nik van den Eerenbeemt in sixth. Great work, kids! In the Under 20 category it was Turkish Enes Yilmazer who is holding first place. He is set on his heels by British Richard Jones and Malte Renscher from Italy. In the Masters category the results are 1. Markus Poltenstein (AUT), 2 thomas Fauster (IA) and 3. Sergio Mehl (Arg.)

Tuesday started off with loads of wind once again, so the sailors will have their work cut out for them once again.

Fans of the French Steakhouse enjoy the Ambassador 5-course menu al fresco

EAGLE BEACH -- Ed, Cathy and Francisco Queenan, from NJ, staying at Casa del Mar have been coming to Aruba for the past 17 years. They mostly seek rest on the island, which they easily find at their resort and as a special treat on Sunday after Casa Del Mar's mass service they go next door for dinner, and on an annual two-week stay, they usually visit the restaurants at the Manchebo Beach Resort & Spa not just once but twice. They were pleased they could be served al fresco, on the patio, and savor tropical family dinner together.

While Francisco enjoyed the Certified Beef Churrasco, Ed and Cathy love fresh fish, and they report the grouper was great, lemon flavored for Ed, grilled for Cathy.

They all agreed the Dutch potatoes are sinfully, and everything on the menu from the basket of olive-oil and herb drizzled foccacia bread to the apfel strudel a la mode dessert is fantastic.

Open seven days a week from 5:30 p.m. - 11:00 p.m. the French Steakhouse is blessed with the nicest staff and a delightfully renovated dining room with sparkling China, crisp linen, an interesting

Nobushi sushi making workshop a success

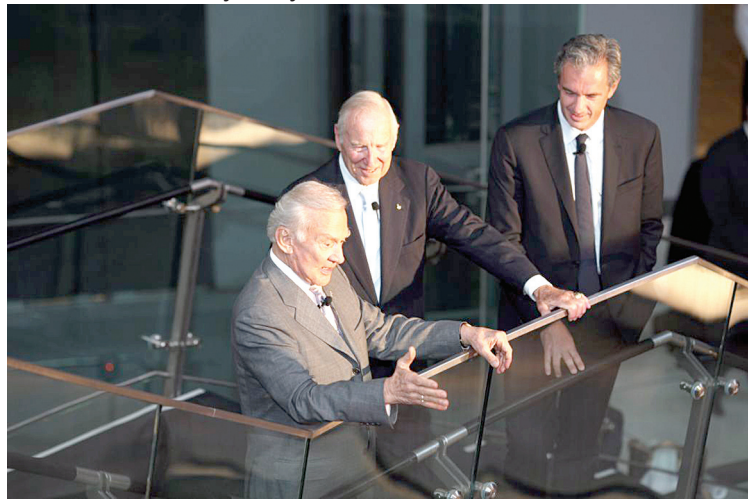

PALM BEACH – Last week, approximately 2 dozen people participated in a sushi making workshop presented by the professional sushi chefs of the Nobushi Restaurant in the Paseo Herencia Mall. Not only did they learn how to roll their own sushi, they learned the techniques and differences between the varieties of sushi. As an added bonus to the workshop, each participant not only had the opportunity to take sushi rolls home with them, it was complemented by wine and a bottle of Bailey's to take home. Everyone enjoyed the event and received a certificate of graduation from the first level sushi making workshop. More events will be held in the near future. □

Life's Pauses - Peri, Andro and Meno

By: Dr. Carlos Viana

Medically, menopause is defined as: when you have not had a menstruation in a year. In fact, Menopause is really the end of a long, slow process called perimenopause, marked by changes in a woman's body. Menopause is a normal part of a woman's life, just like puberty. A woman's ovaries in her mid-30 begin to change how much estrogen and progesterone they produce. These two female hormones are both important for normal menstrual cycles and successful pregnancy.

In our clinic, when I inform women between 35 and 50 years old that the symptoms they are feeling, which seem to be Premenstrual Syndrome (PMS) are actually "Pre" or Perimenopause symptoms. Many women remark that since they are not over fifty, this cannot be! Although, the current average age of menopause is about 52. The age span is usually from 45 to 55. However, symptoms of the body's changes during perimenopause can begin in the late 30's and last up to thirteen years!

Statistics indicate that approximately one in a hundred women goes through menopause at age 40 or younger. Early menopause can occur as a result of surgery, for example, when a woman has a hysterectomy or uterine removal with ovarian removal. According to some experts, early menopause can also be caused by various factors, such as an autoimmune disorder related to poor nutrition or chronic stress resulting in the production of anti-ovarian antibodies.

Menopausal symptoms include hot flashes, mood swings, heart palpitations, insomnia, anxiety, depression, weight gain, low or lost libido and inability to concentrate. Becoming less able to handle daily tasks for women, who are masters at juggling or multi-tasking, may come as a surprise and cause feelings of inadequacy or frustration. Although bewildered husbands, children and a society that thrives on youth seem to believe all menopausal women experience symptoms for years on end, research indicates that 15 percent of women are symptom-free at menopause. Medical researchers have documented that while some women simply stop menstruating and have no symptoms whatsoever, 85 percent will experience some degree of hot flashes. As a medical anthropologist, I can tell you some cultures, such as traditional Navahos, exhibited and reported few symptoms of menopause. Moreover, socioeconomic status was strongly correlated to menopausal women's experience of symptoms. Women in higher income brackets showed an elevated rate of symptoms. This study indicates that psychological factors, rather than physical ones, may strongly determine menopausal symptoms. Belief systems, feelings and attitude can go a long in affecting many health concerns.

Major factors influencing a woman's emotional and physical passage through the change of life include: personal health and childbearing history, health of her female ancestors and living female relatives, past and present dietary habits, past and present tobacco and alcohol use, medications, exercise, life style, stress and self-esteem. Another very influential factor is the amount of circulating glucose and insulin in the blood stream.

Many women have been led to believe that there is a cure for menopause by using estrogen or other forms of hormone replacement therapy (HRT). New medical findings have proven that synthetic hormone replacement may do women more harm than good. Younger women using synthetic birth control pills, patches or injections are using a form of HRT. This can be a big factor affecting women of perimenopausal age. In our clinic, we try to get all women off synthetic, artificial hormone changing birth control. We recommend using safer methods to keep track of their fertility status together with natural family planning and hormone balancing. A simple to use at home "fertility scope" can be effective in keeping track of a perimenopausal woman's changing cycles. Herbs such as Dong Quai, Red Chestnut, Rhodiola, DG-Licorice and Kudzu have long been known for menopausal and perimenopausal support as well as B vitamins.

Since women's hormone levels vary greatly, natural alternatives work best when used under professional guidance.

Some women should not use estrogen. Some need DHEA or testosterone, a hormone found in men, as well. Hormone levels can fluctuate greatly during menopause and women may need test their hormone levels and adjust their hormone therapy throughout the change. Accurate, comprehensive tests are available from laboratories specializing in hormones using saliva or blood spot rather than a tube of blood.

Specialty hormone testing is not only for menopausal women, but should begin in "pre" or peri-menopause. And, let's talk about the men. Men's hormone levels also change with age. This is known as andropause. All men over 50 need to check not only prostate, but also hormone levels. Testosterone can diminish even in younger men and women. Testosterone is responsible for muscle strength, beautiful hair and a healthy libido.

Get The Point! Aging and menopause are natural, not diseases, so a "cure" is unnecessary. Only with factual information can we begin to manage normal changes in our bodies. Having symptoms? Acupuncture and Chinese herbs have been used for more than 5,000 years to help rejuvenate the body and treat menopausal symptoms. Acupuncture can help ease symptoms such as insomnia, night sweats, mood swings and stress. A diet designed for the individual, including dietary supplements and nature's herbs can make your transition easier. Counseling can bring a positive change in attitude. With information and guidance, men and women can journey through these life's changes with healthy "pauses" for rebalancing and enjoyment. Call us for a guided journey.

Rob Smith ta splica motibo di decision pa bolbe den mundo hotelero

Retiro como CEO di AHATA lo nifica contribucion na Aruba for di otro banda

Posicion na Radisson ta representa oportunidad unico

ORANJESTAD—E encargo pa maneha Radisson Resort no ta nifica cu Rob Smith lo bira lomba pa AHATA y responsabilidadnan civil cu su posicion actual tin cu Aruba. Al contrario, como e Gerente General nobo di un di e hotelnan mas importante no solamente pa Aruba, pero tambe pa e compania doño, esta Carlson Group, Smith ta convenci di lo por sigui duna un contribucion na desaroyo di turismo y Aruba en general.

Rob Smith a siman aki a duna di conoce su decision pa accepta e oferta pa asumi encargo di Radisson Resort, lagando asina su posicion di CEO di AHATA habri. “Un oportunidad pa maneha un resort manera Radisson no ta bin asina asina,” Smith a conta Bon Dia Aruba. “Y aunke cu mi no tabata realmente cla pa sali for di mi posicion na AHATA, tin biaha mester tuma un decision asina pa motibo di ‘timing.’” E hecho cu ta trata di un hotel di asina prestigio na Aruba a pisa den su decision pa tuma e posicion, specialmente mirando cu pa Smith, e isla aki ta su cas, cu ta e motibo tambe cu nunca el a considera otro ofertanan pa maneha hotelnan den otro destinacionnan.

E decision pa tuma encargo di Radisson ademas ta basa riba e hecho cu Rob Smith a reconoce e balor imenso di e compleho hotelero aki. E hotel no solamente tin un balor historico pa Aruba, pero e ta un di e propiedadnan mas bunita riba Palm Beach, cu un di e hardinnan mas espectacular. Mas ainda, ta un propiedad grandi cu ta net riba beach, cu ta haci Radisson un joya, den su concepto. Tur esaki combina cu e diversidad di e edificionan y con tur ta hinca den otro, hunto cu e plannan concreto pa inyecta no menos di 30 miyon dollar den renovacion. E inversion ta bin net den un tempo di crisis, mustRANDO cu apesar di tur cos, e compania doño ta mira e balor di Radisson Aruba, y pa un hotelero manera Smith, un oportunidad unico pa yuda guia e paso aki. Carlson tin interes enorme den su propiedad na Aruba, cu ta e ‘flagship’ di e compania y “pa tuma rienda di e ‘flagship’ aki ta un reto agradabel,” Smith a expresa.

Sinembargo, ainda su enfoke principal ta AHATA. Smith tin algun luna mas como CEO di e asociacion turistico di Aruba, y ta totalmente dedica pa en todo caso yuda busca un reemplazante cu por sigui dirigi operacionnan di e partner importante den e industria turistico di nos pais. E hecho cu e lo laga e timon, sin logra tur su metanan, no ta un motibo pa considera cu Smith no a haci su trabou. “Esnan cu a logra tur nan metanan, kizas no tabatin hopi halto. Pero, mas ainda, e hecho cu mi ta move pa un otro nivel den AHATA, mi por bisa cu e metanan lo keda.” Aki Smith ta papia di entre otro di e asina yama Super Marketing Fund, un fondo publico/priva maneha bou supervision di Banco Central, guia pa un directiva consistiendo di representantenan di Direccion di Turismo y AHATA. E Super Marketing Fund aki lo mester financia e mercadeo di Aruba, y ta e alternativa di un ATA (Direccion di Turismo) independiza. Mas cu un ATA independiente, AHATA awor ta kere cu e fondonan di mercadeo di Aruba mester ta los di presupuesto di Gobierno, pa permiti mas flexibilidad. Y aunke cu Rob Smith ta retira como empleado di AHATA, como futuro

Rob Smith

Gerente General di un hotel cu ta contribui grandemente na fondonan di e asociacion, su papel lo keda grandi pues. Smith tin tur intencion pa sigui duna su contribucion den y na directiva di AHATA y di e forma aki, sigui duna un man den realisacion di e obhetivonan. Mirando cu e tin e experiencia trahando como CEO di AHATA, Smith ta sinti cu e lo por duna un miho participacion como miembro. “Nos no mester solamente un lider den AHATA, pero tambe liderazgo den miembrecia, pa percura cu e ta bibo, pa asumi mas responsabilidad.” AHATA, no djis un organizacion AHATA ta un asociacion cu ta represent mas di 110 miembro, tur cu nan mesun importancia. E hunta di directiva ta consisti di 13 miembro, cu hunto cu e CEO ta traha hopi sera cu Gobierno. “E identidad aki ta traha miho ora cu e ta den asociacion cu otro, y involvi cu sector publico. Riba su mes e no ta funciona.” E diversificacion den interes aki ta un di e fortaleza tambe di AHATA.

Rob Smith a bisa cu nunca el a realiza e responsabilidad grandi di AHATA den economia di Aruba. Como CEO di e asociacion, Smith a reconoce e poder di AHATA. “Y e ta merece di ta un organizacion poderoso, mirando cu su miembronan ta percura pa 85 porshento di tur empleo den sector priva.” Pa tal motibo mes, Smith tin e compromiso pa sigui duna su contribucion na e organizacion aki. “Antes tabata pensa cu AHATA ta representa unicamente interes di hotelnan so. Awor por mira cu e interes ta mucho mas grandi. Si por logra cu tur e miembronan ta keda riba e mesun liña, nan por percura cu e decisionnan tambe ta pa proteha interesnan di economia en general, los di agendanan priva.” Di e forma aki por tene tambe na bista e cambianan riba mercado. Como tal, AHATA mester keda cu su abilidad strategico pa sigura exito di Aruba como destinacion. AHATA tin trabounan grandi su dilanti, specialmente den bista di e crisis economico mundial cu ta afectando Aruba tambe. Pero un crisis no ta nifica un fin. Al contrario. Smith ta kere firmemente den expresionnan di Barack Obama, esta cu “no por keda sin haci uzo di un bon crisis. Ta durante crisisnan asina cu hendenan ta lanta riba y ta realiza cu nan mester ta mas involvi. Kizas mester tin esfuerzo comunitario, contribucion na fondonan di mercadeo conhunto pa asina hunto por mantene nivelnan di negoshi.” Den concepto di Smith ta durante tempo di crisis cu e asociacion por muestra su balor y importancia. Y aunke cu na e momentonan aki, tur negoshi turistico por ta sinti efecto di e crisis den nan entradanan, tur ta realiza tambe cu mercadeo ta un di e hermentnan mas importante pa limita caidanen mas drastico, y AHATA hunto cu su staff a percura pa a crea e conviccion aki. Mas ainda, e ta mas barata pa mercadea colectivamente, cu si mester haci esaki a base individual.

mester ta un hende cu tin hopi pasenshi y ta humilde. Con cu bay bin, e posicion di CEO di AHATA ta implica un papel grandi, sin cu tin un autoridad natural. Banda di e cualidadnan, e candidato mester tin abilidadnan di liderazgo, comunicacion y ta un hende cu por anda cu ambiente di trabou y relacionnan diversifica. “E CEO nobo mester ta un hende cu por trece e proceso di pensamiento di sector publico, teniendo semper na cuenta interesnan di sector priva. Pero mas importante, e CEO nobo mester por percura cu ta yega na consenso, ya cu mester trece hendenan hunto pa concretisa ideanan.”

Den otro palabra, e trabou di CEO no ta pa manera ta bisa na Ingles ‘the weak of heart.’ E CEO di AHATA tin cu traha directamente cu miembronan di hunta di directiva, tur personanan decisivo cu ta bay pa locual nan ta kere aden, sin cu e ta perde su mes. Miembro di AHATA Jaap Beaujon mientrastanto a keda contrata pa asisti den buskeda y evaluacion di candidatonan, local y internacional.

Observa, scucha, y absorba. Pero, ya caba Rob Smith ta preparando su mes mentalmente pa e trabou nobo. Su prome ordo di dia lo ta scucha y observa, esta absobra kico tur ta pasa den y cu e hotel. Esaki ta un forma di traha di Smith cu semper a duna su fruto, ya cu den e industria di turismo, comunicacion y e abilidad di por scucha ta hermentnan crucial pa por tuma e miho decisionnan. En todo caso, e ta contento cu e experiencia como CEO di AHATA cu sigur lo sirbi’e den maneha Radisson, manera tabata e caso cu su añanan na Wyndham/Westin cu tambe a yud’e den su trabou como CEO di AHATA. “Danki na e trabou di AHATA mi a logra haya un cantidad increibel di contacto y relacion, y mi tin un comprendemento mas grandi di con Aruba ta funciona como destinacion. Pero mi tin un miho entendimento tambe riba con mi competidornan ta traha, specialmente pa motibo di e bon relacionnan cu mi a logra sera cu tur e Gerentenan General di otro hotelnan, cu prome mi no tabatin na e nivel cu ta existi awor aki.”

Goldman Sachs fails to excite market; Dow up 27

Traders work on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange on July 13, 2009 in New York City. Wall Street giant Goldman Sachs on Tuesday posted second-quarter profit of 3.44 billion dollars, beating market expectations and possibly signaling recovery in the battered US financial sector.

NEW YORK – Investors got the results they wanted from Goldman Sachs, but the stock market's response was just a modest pop.

Mixed economic data Tuesday reminded investors of the challenges businesses still face and left the market zigzagging all day. Stocks gained on a handful of strong earnings, while Treasuries tumbled on news of a jump in inflation. Investors were pleased that Goldman Sachs Group Inc.'s second-quarter earnings easily surpassed analysts' forecasts thanks to big gains in trading and underwriting. But the release of the results came as something of an anticlimax, as anticipation of a strong report sent the entire stock market soaring Monday.

Johnson & Johnson also had better-than-expected results, although its profits fell 3.5 percent.

Stocks could get a boost Wednesday after Intel Corp. issued a strong profit report and better-than-expected forecast after the market closed Tuesday.

Even with strong earnings reports, however, signals about the economy remain mixed. Retail sales posted their largest gain in five months in June, but much of that increase came from higher gas prices. Prices for gas have fallen sharply since mid-June amid increasing concerns about energy demand, so the higher sales figures may not be sustainable.

Investors were also uneasy after a separate report showed wholesale prices rising far more than expected last month and the most since November 2007, due partly to higher energy costs. That sent Treasuries falling and their yields climbing.

The mix of earnings and economic reports over the next few weeks is likely to make for some difficult days on Wall Street. The stock market has already been drifting over the past month, having given up on a massive spring rally as troubling signs began to emerge on the economy including rising unemployment and waning consumer confidence. Unless companies start issuing promising outlooks for the second half of the year, it will be hard, if not impossible, for the market to resume that rally.

"We need a general consistent pattern of bullish news coming out to turn this market around," said Darin Newsom, senior analyst at DTN.

The Dow rose 27.81, or 0.3 percent, to 8,359.49. The Standard & Poor's 500 index rose 4.79, or 0.5 percent, to 905.84, while the Nasdaq composite index rose 6.52, or 0.4 percent, to 1,799.73.

The yield on the 10-year Treasury note jumped to 3.47 percent from 3.35 percent as its price fell nearly a point. Long-term government debt tends to be sensitive to reports of higher prices, as inflation erodes the value of fixed-income securities over time. Investors sent stocks sharply higher on Monday, lifting the Dow 2.3 percent, after Meredith Whitney, a respected banking analyst, upgraded her view on Goldman. The shift stoked hopes that financial companies will show continued signs of improvement.

But Goldman's actual results had little impact as investors' focus quickly turned to the rest of the financial industry.

"Here we have a best-in-class sort of company reporting outstanding results," said Craig Peckham, an analyst with Jefferies & Co. "The earnings reports we get in the financial sector from here on out quite honestly are coming from companies that just don't have the same kind of cachet."

Goldman rose 22 cents to $149.66. Investors are also expecting reports from JPMorgan Chase & Co., Bank of America Corp. and Citigroup Inc. this week.

One troubling indication that the financial industry has not fully recovered: Commercial lender CIT Group Inc. is talking with the government about receiving emergency assistance to help solve liquidity problems. CIT rose 26 cents, or 19.3 percent, to $1.61 after tumbling 11.8 percent Monday.

There were mixed forecasts from several companies. Johnson & Johnson gained 51 cents to $58.23 after its report.

Dell Inc. warned that quarterly gross margins will fall below first-quarter levels due to higher component costs and pressure to keep prices low. The stock fell $1.05, or 8.1 percent, to $11.97.

Railroad operator CSX Corp. said it expects shipping demand to sink by double-digits again this quarter, but not as drastically as the 21 percent decline in the second quarter. The stock jumped $2.26, or 7 percent, to $34.80. The dollar fell against other major currencies, while gold prices rose.

Oil slipped 17 cents to settle at $59.52 a barrel on the New York Mercantile Exchange.

In other trading, the Russell 2000 index of smaller companies rose 3.21, or 0.7 percent, to 496.52.

More than two stocks rose for every one that fell on the New York Stock Exchange, where consolidated volume came to a relatively low 4.2 billion shares, down from 4.6 billion Monday.

Overseas, Japan's Nikkei stock average gained 2.3 percent. Britain's FTSE 100 rose 0.9 percent, Germany's DAX index rose 1.3 percent, and France's CAC-40 gained 1.0 percent. □

Yum Brands profit jumps in 2Q

By BRUCE SCHREINER,
Associated Press Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Grilling has put some sizzle back at KFC, but a reduced sales outlook took a toll on shares of KFC parent company Yum Brands Inc. despite a strong second quarter.

The spring rollout of Kentucky Grilled Chicken, backed by an advertising blitz and a promotion on Oprah Winfrey's Web site that inspired a run on stores, led to surging U.S. sales at the chicken chain. That helped the operator of KFC, Pizza Hut and Taco Bell post a 35 percent increase in second-quarter profit.

But the company downgraded its full-year sales outlook for its China and U.S. operations. Same-store sales in China are expected to be about flat for the year, compared with Yum's prediction in December of 5 percent growth.

U.S. same-store sales are expected to be down slightly, compared with a December projection of 3 percent growth. Its international division, which excludes China, now expects same-store sales growth of about 3 percent, compared with a 3 to 5 percent projection in December.

The company maintained its earnings outlook for the full year below analyst expectations, and investors sent shares down $1.63, or 4.5 percent, to $34.60 in after-hours trading.

Yum on Tuesday reported a 35 percent increase in profit for the three months ending June 13 due to strong operating profit in China and the U.S. and an improved tax rate.

In the U.S., Yum's operating profit rose by 8 percent in the three months ending June 13, as strong sales at KFC and Taco Bell offset sluggishness at Pizza Hut. Yum said domestic same-store sales slipped 1 percent in the quarter, due to an 8 percent decline at Pizza Hut.

The company attributed KFC's rejuvenated sales to grilled chicken — which had one of the most successful launches in Yum's history, said Yum spokesman Jonathan Blum. He credited the new grilled product for a 10-point swing in same-store sales from the first quarter to second quarter for the chain best known for fried chicken.

"It overcomes KFC's number one barrier to growth, which was health," he said.

Grilled chicken already represents more than 40 percent of on-the-bone chicken sales at KFC stores in the U.S., he said.

When coupons for free grilled-chicken meals were posted on Oprah.com, the resulting rush lasted days and snarled service in some stores — and traffic on nearby roads. The frenzy briefly overwhelmed the chain and angered some customers who were offered rain checks.

Yum Chairman and CEO David C. Novak said Tuesday that Pizza Hut remains the company's biggest challenge in the U.S. as it competes "in a more discretionary, higher guest-check, dinner category." But Novak expressed confidence in Pizza Hut's strategy of broadening its menu to include pasta and chicken wings.

Yum reported net income of $303 million, or 63 cents per share, for the quarter, compared with $224 million, or 45 cents per share, in the same quarter last year. Revenue fell roughly 7 percent to $2.5 billion.

Adjusted for special items, the company earned 50 cents per share. Analysts polled by Thomson Reuters, on average, expected Yum to earn 43 cents per share on revenue of $2.5 billion.

The quarterly earnings benefited from a one-time gain of $68 million from Yum acquiring additional ownership in the entity that owns the KFC business in Shanghai, China.

Operating profit in Yum's pivotal China division rose 14 percent to $105 million in the quarter, as the opening of 118 restaurants helped offset a 4 percent drop in same-store sales from a robust period a year ago.

The company maintained its guidance for the year, saying it expects to earn $2.10 per share for the year — 10 percent growth over the prior year. Analysts expect $2.12 per share for the year.

The company is on pace for 475 new restaurant openings in mainland China this year, consistent with last year's rapid pace, Blum said.

Yum said its international division, which doesn't include China, opened 193 new restaurants in more than 50 countries in the quarter.

The company's brands also include Long John Silver's and A&W All-American Food. □

From Bikini Bottom to pop icon; SpongeBob turns 10

Sponge Bob Square Pants sits on display at Nickelodeon's licensing booth during the Licensing 2003 International exposition in the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York June 12, 2003.

By Jill Serjeant

LOS ANGELES (Reuters) — He lives in a pineapple under the sea but has fans in more than 170 countries, a theme-park ride and is one of the best-connected celebrities in the world. Now cartoon character SpongeBob SquarePants is celebrating his 10th anniversary on television, a major milestone for any star. His creators are still mystified at his lofty status as an global pop culture icon who counts U.S. President Barack Obama, actor Johnny Depp and singer David Bowie among his friends.

It has been a surreal, goofy journey for the talking yellow sponge from Bikini Bottom, his pink starfish friend Patrick and greedy employer Mr. Krabs.

But SpongeBob's naive optimism, the show's humor and even a brief controversy over his sexuality have merited celebrations this week ranging from a 10th anniversary documentary to the unveiling of the first-ever wax figure of an animation character at Madame Tussauds in New York.

REUTERS/Shannon Stapleton

Few behind SpongeBob's July 1999 debut on children's TV network Nickelodeon expected him to win as many hearts as he has.

"The sarcasm or mean-spirited stuff that cartoons are usually about might not translate into other cultures," said Executive Producer Paul Tibbitt, who has been with the show since the start. "But happiness and optimism -- the positive traits that SpongeBob has -- translate better. I think people were just hungry for something a little more positive. But I would never have thought it would go 10 years," Tibbitt said.

GLOBAL SPONGE Marine biologist and animator Stephen Hillenburg, who created the characters, thought the show would be canceled after its first season. It wasn't until he visited a village in Sumatra a few years ago and saw a schoolgirl with a bootleg SpongeBob book bag that he realized how big it had become.

After winning awards in countries as diverse as Australia, Germany and Brazil, the 11-minute episode series "SpongeBob SquarePants" made its Chinese debut in 2005.

The cartoon has even inspired rides at U.S. theme parks.

SpongeBob emerged largely unscathed after being targeted in a 2005 drive by U.S. Christian groups against homosexuality, in which it was suggested that the cheerful cartoon chap might be gay. Hillenburg said at the time that SpongeBob was "asexual."

President Obama named SpongeBob his favorite TV character, telling TV Guide in 2007 it was "the show I watch with my daughters." Depp and Bowie are among the celebrities who have lent their voices to guest characters over the years, thanks mostly to their children.

Comedians Robin Williams, Will Ferrell and Ricky Gervais will appear as themselves in a one-hour anniversary special to be broadcast in the United States in the fall.

Actor Tom Kenny has lent his voice to SpongeBob from the outset after mimicking for Hillenburg a conversation he overheard from a Santa's elf in a shopping mall. □

LOS ANGELES — Michael Jackson's comeback concerts will never happen, but you can still get the T-shirt.

Merchandise from Jackson's "This Is It" tour, which was scheduled to begin Monday in London, will be available online and at retailers across the United States.

Jackson helped design the concert T-shirts and other show souvenirs, said Peter LoFrumento, a spokesman for the merchandising company, Bravado.

"Michael was very adamant about not just doing T-shirts and posters and key chains," he said. "He wanted to do something special and make it really innovative and different, things that were functional and fun and that his fans would like."

Among the items for sale: T-shirts commemorating the first and second nights of the concerts at London's O2 arena, belt buckles, caps, sunglasses

Jackson died June 25 in Los Angeles while preparing for the 50-date concert tour. □

Intel shares soar as company beats soft forecast

By JORDAN ROBERTSON,
AP Technology Writer
SAN FRANCISCO - Intel Corp. offered support Tuesday for its assertion that the computer business is rebounding, even as other parts of the industry throw off mixed signals. Intel's results and outlook were much better than analysts' subdued estimates, sending its shares up 7 percent after hours.

In the quarter that ended June 27, the chip maker posted sales and profit that breezed past Wall Street's forecasts — though investors had to overlook a $1.45 billion antitrust fine from the European Union. The fine, which Intel had to pay while it is appealing the case, gave the world's biggest semiconductor company its first quarterly net loss since 1986.

Intel earned $1 billion, or 18 cents per share, in the second quarter, excluding the EU fine. On that basis, analysts expected a profit of 8 cents per share, according to Thomson Reuters.

Including the fine, Intel lost $398 million, or 7 cents per share. In the same quarter last year, its profit was $1.6 billion, or 28 cents per share.

Sales fell 15 percent to $8.02 billion in the most recent quarter. Analysts had predicted $7.28 billion.

The results indicate that demand for chips is improving. PC manufacturers are ordering more processors, mainly because they've burned through massive amounts of inventory to save money and now have to restock. That doesn't mean the machines they're building are necessarily flying off the shelves.

The No. 2 PC maker, Dell Inc., warned this week that the U.S. computer market might have hit its bottom, but its sales to businesses remain weak. CEO Michael Dell said penny-pinching computer buyers appear to be holding on to their existing machines for longer than is typical. Meanwhile, Hewlett-Packard Co., the world's biggest PC seller, offered a lower-than-expected sales forecast in May.

Intel's chief financial officer, Stacy Smith, said Intel's results reflected "a combination of strengthening end demand and a partial replenishment of the worldwide supply chain."

Intel's numbers are closely watched because they reflect the health of the computer market and technology spending in general. Interest in the second-quarter numbers was particularly acute because CEO Paul Otellini predicted in April that PC sales had "bottomed out" after their worst holiday season in six years.

Global PC shipments in 2009 are expected to fall for the first time since the dot-com meltdown in 2001, according to the iSuppli Corp. research firm. Yet analysts said Intel's numbers Tuesday indicated that the industry is not in as dire shape as it appeared just months ago.

"How can we not be happy? I think they did a tremendous job," said Leslie Fiering, a research vice president with Gartner Inc. "It has to inspire some confidence in the market. ... There is uncertainty in this market, but we're seeing improvement, and it beats the alternative." Intel offered a third-quarter sales outlook of $8.5 billion, plus or minus $400 million, which was significantly better than the $7.8 billion average estimate of analysts polled by Thomson Reuters. That helped drive Intel shares up $1.27 to $18.10 in extended trading. Before the earnings report, the stock closed at $16.83, up 2.1 percent on the day. □

Tin un storia cu e tabata bende tanto koffie cu algun cliente lo a bini Aruba pa bin bishita e plantacionnan di koffie akinan... Atravez di e añanan Don Elias a cuminsa varios negoshi na Aruba, Corsow, Bonaire, St. Maarten, y a hasi inversion na varios otro lugar mas, pero semper cu su cede na Aruba, involucrando su mes den su comunidad, por ehempel como miembro di directiva di Camara di Comercio hunto cu su amigonan Juancho Irausquin, Mario Arends y otro. Don Elias Mansur a casa cu Damia Moauwad na aña 1930, y nan a hanja ocho yiu. E mayor tabata Alex, sigui pa Ruben, Jossy, Sarah, Damia (Rina), Elias (Don), Luis y Miguel. Mayoria di e yiunan a participa den un of otro forma den e negoshinan, particularmente e dos yiunan mayor. Don Elias Mansur tabata semper conocí pa su talento di negocia y tambe pa su generosidad. Pero mas cu esey e tabata conoci como un persona cu un huicio increible. Casi tur comerciante tabata bai serca Don Elias pa conseho y hasta pa arbitrahe den casonan di conflicto. Apesar di su modestidad y discrecion, Don Elias a ricibi varios reconocimentonan, entre nan “Officier in de orde van Oranje-Nassau” (algo hopi inusual como cu semper ela keda carga su nacionalidad Venezolano). Dia cu ela ricibi e condecoracion aki a menciona especificamente su arbitrahe entre comerciantenan na Aruba. Varios di e yiunan di Don Elias tabata hopi activo den comunidad den un cantidad di actividad: Alex semper tabata activo den organizacionnan deportivo (ABBA), social (S. V. Caribe), comercial (AMRA) y caricativo (Kiwaniis), Ruben tabata activo den organizacionnan caricativo (Rotary) y comercial (Presidente di Camara di Comercio), Don tabata presidente di ATIA y tambe vak minister den Gobierno Antiyano (cu MEP)

y atrobe vak minister pa e prome gabinete Arubano (cu e.o AVP), mientras cu Miguel tabata presidente di Camara di Comercio como tambe comisario di e.o. Banco Central y Aruba Ports Authority.

Mayoria di e yiunan di Don Elias a casa y a hanja yiu di nan mes, hasiendo cu awe tin 26 nieto di Don Elias Mansur tanto na Aruba como den exterior, di cual mayoria tambe ta casá y cu nan mes yiu atrobe, local ta representa e di cinco generacion desde Papa Miguel su yegada na Aruba mas di un siglo pasá.

Alex Mansur, e yiu mayor di Don Elias, a casa cu Ola van der Naaten, e tempo ey juffrouw di school, y nan a hanja ocho yiu; Angele (Sasha), Alex Jr.,

Valeska, Stefanja (Fanja), Farid, Serge, Gavril y Quentin (Tino), cu entre nan atrobe tin 19 yiu (dus nieto di Alex cu Ola). Di esakinan varios ta biba na Aruba, mientras cu algun ta biba na Merca y Hulanda.

Ola van der Naaten ta un yiu di Anton & Meta van der Naaten. Anton tabata un hulandes cu a bini Aruba pa maneha loke awe ta Elmar, tempo cu e empresa tabata pertenece na John Eman. Su señora, Meta, tabata aleman. Nan a hanja cuatro yiu; Inge, John, Ola y Lillian van der Naaten.

Nos tur como yiu di Alex y Ola Mansur a sinja di nan e balor di union familiar como tambe e importancia di contribui positivamente na nos comunidad.

Nos ta e di cuatro generacion di Mansur na Aruba, y aunke nos ta keda orguyoso di nos raisnan Libanes, Hulandes y Aleman, nos tur ta considera nos mes Arubano prome y despues di tur cos.”

Sr. Otmar Oduber (AVP)

Hopi trahado den sector di turismo na trabou ta den duda awe debi na e instabilidad economico

ORANJESTAD – Partido AVP den plan Aruba ariba a concentra gran parti di nan atencion riba e mercado aki, riba un grupo di personanan cu a bira un grupo grandi bou di casinonan, hotel y construccion, caminda cu e hendenan aki ta biba na e momentonan aki cu tin empleo via di on call of via di un trabou temporario, por tin un seguridad di trabou y tambe un gobierno cu ta concentra su maneho y plan di gobernacion riba e crecimiento economico di e pais, unda cu e aspecto economico financiero mester ta di gran importancia pa cada un persona cu ne momentonan aki ta sufri bou di e gara di on call of trabou temporario como dealer, waiter, bartender of mundo di construccion.

E accento cu ta wordo poni caminda ta bai rescata e economia di e pais aki, pone e atencion un biaha a mas na e producto Aruba pa eleva

e calidad di e producto na un nivel caminda cu por bai haya mas entrada for di e turistanan cu ta bishita Aruba na e momentonan aki, hunto cu e rebaho di gastonan di gobierno, mester bai significa cu lo bai logra elimina e BBO y manera cu a presenta cu e prome fase mester tuma luga na prome di januari 2010 y pa siguidamente despues di rebaha y elimina e BBO aki cut a un peso riba lomba di e ciudadanonan, percura pa e gastonan interno di gobierno cu a conoce un aumento drastico, pa loke ta huurmento di edificio, pa loke ta trata salarionan di consultant nan, contratnan cu a keda sera na formanan ilegal, cu ta hala esakinan aden pa di e forma ei baha e gastonan di gobierno y pa asina percura cu Aruba tin un entrada mas halto cu ta posibel for di un di e sector nan cu ta primordial pa nos economia, pero tambe percura cu tin combersacion y discusionnan na nivel di partner cu tur sector cu por complementa e desaroyo aki na Aruba.

AVP ya cab a inicia e proceso di combersacion pa logra e parti di eleva calidad id turismo, combersando y atrayendo esnan cu a forma parti grandi di e desaroyo turistico aki nan na Aruba, manera KLM, American Airlines, Carnival Cruise Lines cu tabata partnernan strategico cu nos a conoce. Cu KLMA ya caba cuminsa combersacion y den forma regular tin combersacionnan cu mester bai termina den combersacion cu lider di partido, miembro di partido, como tambe KLM y gobierno Hulandes y na nivel di Carnival Cruise Lines tin combersacion, pa asina segura pa trece bek un di e linea cruceronan mas importante aki na Aruba, cu tabata tie tur siman na Aruba durante aña. Sr. Otmar Oduber a bisa cu mester discuti tambe cu American Airlines cu ta un di e partnernan di mas bieu y strategico di pais Aruba, asina evita cu e charter nan ta bin kibra e companianan aki y asina duna privilegio na e charter nan aki, dunando mas importancia na e aerolinea nan cu tei tur tempo.

Ya caba den pasado American a para tur e buelonan di Puerto Rico cu ta un di e hub nan mas principal pa trece e mercado centro Americano pa Aruba y no tin ningun buelo pa Aruba actualmente for di puerto Rico y a reduci buelonan for di otro destinacionnan, pa falta di interes di gobierno. Por a mira recientemente un comision a biaha for id Curacao, unda cu siman pasa esaki a resulta den cantidad di buelo di American Airlines pa Curacao, caminda cu e nan ta combersa cu e partnernan na un nivel hopi halto. Den e plan nobo di partido AVP, bo ta mira cu tin e atencion pa percura cu tin un economia cu ta florece, un turismo diversifica y mehora e problemanan cu tin awe di personanan cu na trabounan ta den duda riba e pais aki y percura pa cada empleado tin un entrada tur fin di luna.

Un di e promer hende muhernan cu responsabilidadnan importante den politica di pais Aruba

ORANJESTAD- Pa medio di un comunicado Forza Femenino di MEP ta anuncia cu ayera a recorda e di diez aniversario di fayecimento di nos inolvidable Grace Bareño q.e.p.d.

Grace, manera tur hende tabata yame, tabata un di promer hende muhernan politico, kende tabata miembro di Eilandsraad desde 1975 te 1981 y 1983 te cu 1985. Tambe Grace a eherce e funcion di Diputado den bestuurscollege entre 1979 y 1981 y 1985, atendiendo e cartera di Asuntonan Social. Grace tabata alavez un di e hende muhernan fuerte cu a lucha conhuntamente cu e gran libertador Betico Croes y actual lider di MEP, sr. Nelson Oduber y coleganan di partido MEP pa logra Status Aparte pa Aruba.

Despues di 1986, Grace tabata un di promer hende muhernan cu a ocupa e puesto di parlamentario pa Fraccion di MEP. Alavez ela duna forma na liderazgo di partido MEP dor di su funcion como lider di fraccion, esaki desde 1989 te cu 1993.

Grace a keda duna su aporte na partido MEP te despues cu ela a retira for di politica activo. Ela keda un gran consehero pa lider di partido MEP, esaki te na su fayecimento dia 14 di juli 1999.

Julian Fitzgerald Chance

Ami como e candidato riba e lista di MEP cu a propone un plan pa e desarrollo di Main Street di San Nicolas como un destinacion Turistico (The Chance Plan) den cual un parti chikito di e plan ta ensera cu e donjonan di e barnan por, si nan ta interesa, tin e oportunidad pa solicita pa un vergunning di topless entertainment. Mi kier a tuma e oportunidad aki pa trese algun punto dilanti relaciona cu e declaracionan hasi door di Parlamentario Sr. Otmar Oduber.

Na prome lugar mi plan pa San Nicolas ta ensera pa duna incentivanan (tax incentives) pa restaurantnan, lugarnan di entretenimiento como night clubs, cafe's y casinos pa bin habri nan portanan den Main Street di San Nicolas y areanan den vecendario inmediato.

Na segundo lugar ta ensera pa tin e mesun encentivanan aki pa negoshinan existente pa por drecha y renoba nan negoshinan paden y pafo. Tur esaki den e cuadro cu full e caya lo ser renoba cu pavers/ klinkers/ coble stenen pa inclui plantamento di palmas y mas matanan den e area completo. Otro parti di e plan lo encera pa gobierno duna permiso pa por tin den Main Street especificamente, dos of tres "free standing" casino's. (sin e necesidad pa construi cambernan di hotel).

Mi Digno Pueblo Arubano

Tambe e plan lo ensera creashon di un Museo y "Memorial" di e Segunda Guerra Mundial y e historia y coneccion cu Aruba y San Nicolas tin cu esaki cual lo bira un day tour cu lo sali tur dia di e hotelnan biniendo Pariba di Brug. E idea ta tambe pa crea un carnaval night tur diabierna anochi cu un mini carnaval saliendo for di e station di Arubus pasando den Main Street y regresando na Arubus. Relaciona cu e expansion comercial di e central di Arubus e plan tambe ta ensera e construccin y operacion di un multi plex "MovieTheatre" di cual mi persona ya caba a hasi contacto cu potencial operadornan cu a muestra hopi interes den e oportunidad y ta moviendo dilanti cu e plannan. Al respecto di Joe Laveist Sport center mi plan ta ensera cu e centro aki cai bow di manejo di gobierno (Lotto Pa Deporte) y cu e ta bai ta e nucleus di un centro commercial den e area dilanti special pa negoshinan chikito cu pa cualkier rason lo no kier ta parti di e actividadnan di entretenimiento cu lo tin den e caya principal di San Nicolas. Tur esaki cu e objetivo pa crea un destinacion turistico di San Nicolas y Pariba di Brug y tur e spin-off effect cu esaki lo tin.

Awor damas y caballeros mi opinionan y mi ideanan al respeto a sali door cu mi a scoge e Industria di Hospitalidad y Turismo como mi profesion, mi a studia den e ramo aki y mi tin 25 anja di experiencia di cual 23 den posicionnan ejecutivo y mi tawata tin e suerte pa por a traha y deal cu e aspectonan turistico den tur e "Hot Spots" turistico den Caribe como Nasau Bahamas, Cayman Islands, Barbados, St Maarten, St Thomas y claramente e mihor di tur Aruba. Fuera di esaki mi a biaha y bishita hopi destinacionan turistico rond di mundo como Paris, Roma, Madrid, Amsterdam, Venecia, Croacia, Grecia, Turkia, Las Vegas, New Orleans, New York, Hawaii, Orlando y mucho mas.

Mi experiencianan ta dunami e fe y e conocimiento cu e plan di mi por y lo traha pa crea un destinacion turistico pa Pariba di Brug en general y Main Street San Nicolas y areanan alrededor especificamente y tur e actividadnan economico cu ta bai bin cu esaki.

Parlamentario Oduber a declara cu mi plannan ta un ofensa completo pa pueblo di San Nicolas y cu e Parlamentario y su partido tin un plan pa San Nicolas incluyendo un aeropuerto na De Vuist.

Damas y caballeros den mi opinion un aeropuerto na De Vuist no ta fasible economicamente y e ta zona igual como un Race Track den Grape Field cu tambe tawata un plan di e Parlamentario y su partido y nos sa con e plan ey a termina... nul komma nul, net net nada. Esey ta un ofensa completo pa e pueblo di San Nicolas.

Ya cu nos ta papia di ofensanan completo pa e pueblo di San Nicolas, por ultimo mi kier a puntra parlamentario Oduber si e idea di e aeropuerto na De Vuist tawata parti di e plan pa e fondo di desarrollo nobo di San Nicolas cu e partido di e Parlamentario tawatin den pasado? Y ki parti di e 50 miyon florin en cuestion tawata destina pa un areopuerto na De Vuist? Imagina nos con San Nicolas a wordo perjudica cu e asunto aki. Den mi opinion e pueblo votador di Aruba y specialmente e votadornan di San Nicolas no ta bai lubida tan facilmente cu Parlamentario Oduber y su partido tawata tin e oportunidad cu e Fondo di Desarrollo Nobo San Nicolas (50 MIYON FLORIN) pa juda/ drecha y mejora San Nicolas en especial e partinan social, educacional y economico, pero lastimamente nos tur sa con e asunto ey a caba. nul komma nul, net net nada pa e pueblo di San Nicolas.

Gregory Lacle satisfecho cu e participacion di Hike-4-Health

COLONY/ARASHI - Diasabra pa 6:30 a.m. a reuni un grupo di total 52 hikers na e anker na entrada di Colony pa asina participa na e challenge di Hike 4 Health.

E prome parti di e trayecto pa Boca Prins a wordo cumpli den un bon tempo. For di Boca Prins pa Natural Bridge

e naturalesa a cuminsa pisa ariba algun di e participantenan. Na dos ocasion Gregory Lacle mester a para di hike pa duna asistencia medico te ora cu e team di Rode Kruis por a tuma over y transporta e personanan pa e siguiente post unda nan por a sigui e hike den auto. Lacle a duna di conoce cu e casonan no tawata grave pero cu su sentido di responsabilidad ta pone cu e mester a keda atras te ora cu Rode Kruis a yega. Esaki a pone cu Gregory Lacle a hañ’e ta tuma mas largo pa completa e hike y a hañ’e ta combati cu e solo y e naturalesa pa mas tempo.

Na altura di Alto Vista Gregory a wordo encontra pa un grupo di amigonan y sostenedornan cu a dun’e extra animo pa sigui y cu a acompaña Gregory durante e “last-lap” pa Arashi. Lider di Partido Democracia Real, Andin Bikker y esposa y tambe e esposa di Lacle y su dos yiunan tawata entre esnan cu a acompaña Gregory den e ultimo trayecto.

Un Gregory Lacle sumamente cansa, castiga pa e elementonan y cu diferente blaar na pia a declara “mi ta satisfecho cu e participacion di tur hende y mi ta spera cu e hike aki a yuda conscientisa nos hendenan di e trabou bunita di e fundacion aki, y si ta pa yuda e causa aki mi ta willing pa hike bai bek Colony awor aki mes”.

Remitido

BBO ta intachable of desastroso

Den e dia nan aki atrobe tin e discusion riba BBO.

Tur cu ta biba na Aruba y ta pasando den e miseria cu BBO a trece cune lo ta contento ora di tende cu por elimina BBO.

BBO a wordu introduci na un manera cruel y injusto pa asina demonstra e pueblo cu ora ta na favor di algún cu ta haya beneficio di esaki tur cos ta posible y enberdad tin un problema cu e ley aki a pasa den un manera hopi sospechoso caminda cu a cuminsa na trata na trece confucion pa saka oposicion afor pa después bay bulldoze e ley di BBO sin mas.

Awor kier pretende cu esaki a pasa legalmente corecto y tambe cu mayoría total di parlamento. Aki ta caminda cu nos systema parlamentario ta faya y ta causa cu democracia na Aruba ta wordu atrapa den un forma no usual. No tin respet pa opinión di otro ta esnan na mando ta dicidi y ta deshasi manera cu nan kier cu ta bon of no.

Pueblo después ta esun cu mester paga pa tur e fayonan cometi y no esnan cu ta comete e fayonan. Tempo cu a introduci BBO a bisa cu BBO lo reemplaza otro retributionnan di Gobienro.

6 luna promer cu a introduci BBO a hisa invoerrecchten na grandi asina anticipando riba e ley di BBO pa intorduci esaki. E tempo ey a bisa cu ta temporalmente e invoerrechtannan a wordu ajusta pa juda gobierno pero dia cu BBO a wordu intorduci por a mira cu e invoerrechtannan no a wordu poni bek na e tarifa di antes. Esaki ta caminda cu pueblo ta sali perjudica y cu ta hasi Aruba inpagable y ta destruyendo nos economía.

Aki nos por mira claramente con no ta tene cuenta cu e consecuencianan desastroso pa cu nos economía basta cu a introduci e ley di BBO pa mas entrada millonario ainda temporalmente. Mira e efecto con pueblo a wordu engaña cu e introduction di BBO, na lugar di a ajusta e invoerrecchten bek na su tarifa di antes a laga esaki den e tarifa temporal cu a causa un subida di mayoría biaha di casi 50%. Awor a bin gaba cu a baha impuesto di entrada personal esta inkomsten belasting pero a lubida cu esnan mas vulnerable no ta paga esaki pues nan a haya zero plaka bek y mester aporta total na e consecuencia di e BBO. Ora cu a mira e error aki a core ajusta minimumloon cu 100 florin pero e hecho aki tambe ta inflatoir pues e ta wordu encorpora den e prijs cu pueblo mester paga y asina causa un subida di prijs caminda cu e gobernantenan tabata contento cune pasobra e ora ta mas BBO nan lo bay cobra.

A ajusta e prima di winstbelasting cu ta algo cu ta si bo hasi ganashi bo tin cu paga esaki pero en realidad esaki no a alivia e situation di esnan mas vulnerable den nos comunidad pasobra e medidanan aki no ta afecta e grupo aki y riba dje no lubida cu Gobierno ta cobra e comerciante winstbelasting adelanta sin cu e sa si e tin ganashi si of no.

Locual cu Gobierno a hasi ta tuma tur hende hasi y a trata na haya e efecto grandi di un entrada gigantecso temporal pa nan por a haya mas entrada di e pueblo y asina debilita nos economía y crea mas problema social caminda cu criminalidad a crese y e pueblo trahador a siña conoce miseria y mester a cuminsa traha doublé a consecuencia cu no tin tempo pa e parti social mas di bida cu ta enfoca den hubentud cu ta bira rebelde y bay den e direction caminda cu esnan den bajo mundo ta probecha pa hasi uso di ofrece entrada fácil cu ta resulta den locual Aruba ta experienciando awor. Un problema gigantecso social y criminal. Gobernantenan ta ignora nan errornan y ta sigui enriquece nan mes cu salarionan barbaro caminda cu nan entrada si a wordu ajusta pa asina nan por a haya mas den nan sako fin di luna pasobra ta anan ta esnan cu a probecha di e ajustacion di e impuesto di salario! esaki ta yama traha na bienestar di e pueblo trahado cu nan ta yama e hombre chiquito.

Awor cu campaña a cuminsa esaki lo bira cabay di campaña pasobra pueblo no sa con pa cubri nan gastonan sin nan lo mester bay acepta un dia cu nan tambe tin cu bay forma parti di un cirquito cu sigur nan lo no a opta pele of ta wordu engaña un bez mas door di politiconan cu ta bin ofrece trabow temporal pa hasi campaña pa e gobernantenan. Aki ta caminda cu corruption ta conta na grandi y tin Gobernante kier bin trata na defende cu esaki ta democrático!!!!

Pueblo tene bon na consideracion cu tin hopi manera pa drecha e situation y sigur cu lo por elimina e BBO basta cu e politiconan cu ta Goberna stop cu e deroche di plaka di pueblo pa asina por enriquece familia y nan mes. Aruba mester di un Gobierno cu por Goberna e isla aki na un manera drechi y según reglanan di bon Gobernacion.

Dicon ta core laga familia traha edificionan nobo pa asina usa plaka di pueblo pa paga huur exorbitantemente halto y e edificionan di Gobierno no ta wordu manteni y ta laganan manera cos cu nan lo no ta bal nada aki ta caminda cu corruption ta dal duro y pueblo ta esun cu mester paga pa e asuntonan aki y no esnan cu a comete e fechorianan aki.

Pues no laga ningún hende bin bisabo cu no por elimina BBO. Aruba tin un economía habri y ta importa mas di 90% di locual cu ta wordu consumi riba e isla aki y casi no tin exportation ni production local.

Aki ta caminda cu por bisa BBO no ta factible pa Aruba y tin hopi otro método pa maneja e isla aki den un forma hopi mas eficiente cu por resalta den amplia e poder di forza di compra di tur cu tin di bida riba e isal aki. Y no tin mester di tin un descrepancia asina grandi cu un grupito ta caba cu tur locual cu e pueblo trahador no por produci ni suporta mas.

Mester bira realístico y tene na cuenta cu tur cos ta, con bo ta maneja un asunto.

Gobernantenan mester siña cu Goberna un isla ta mescos cu maneja nan propio cartera pero si keda exige mas cu locual cu ta produci ta nifica cu e empresa lo no tin mas reserva y lo keda sin nada na cierto momento.

Esaki ta locual cu Hulanda kier salvaguardia e pueblo aki di dje, pasobra anan cu ta cooresponsable pa locual cu ta pasando riba nos isla y con e ta wordu maneja tambe ta mira e deroche di paka di pueblo cu ta tumando lugar, caminda cu ta duna oportunidad pa ladronicia di plaka di puebo y nada no ta wordu hasi pa evita esaki.

Cosnan cu ta wordu hasi pa enriquece esanan cerca di mandatarionan ta wordu accepta den parlamento después di cu e actonan aki a wordu señala pa asina kita e responsabilidad di e mandatario pa cu e ta keda responsable personalmente pa cu su actonan. Aki ta caminda cu corruption ta florece ora cu ta cubri pa esnan di mesun partido cu ta cometiendo fayonan.

Pues pueblo tene bon na consideracion pa no laga ningún hende engañabo cu cos tin cu sigui manera cu e ta bay awor y tur esnan cu kier bin bisabo cu BBO no por wordu elimina ta demostrando bo cu nan meta ta pa forma parti di e gang di provechado pa asina por trata na sigui probecha riba custia di e pueblo lubidando cu cierto momento fiesta ta caba y banda ta stop di toka!

Nos isla mester di un cambio radical pa cu e manejo económico cu ta hibando actualmente y mester hasi sacrificio pa elimina tur locual cu ta deroche di plaka di pueblo cu of sin bendición di parlamento.

Atentamente,

R. Smit

Ta momento pa pueblo realisa cu e sistema di politca inovativo cu pader a presenta ta garantisa nos democracia y nos estado di derecho y den tal caso e posibilidad pa mal gobernacion ta keda limita.

Nos lo tin un pueblo uni y satisfecho y hamas lo bay presenta un caso manera esaki den corte y tampoco lo ta necesario pa ningun instancia externo bin controla nos gobernantenan y como tal nos Status Aparte ta keda sagrado.

Nos lo tin parlamentarionan y gobernantenan integro cu lo duna cuenta debidamente y dibinamente na pueblo y pues cu no tin mester di tilda otro pa ‘cosnan mahos’ manera cu AVP/MEP ta haci.”

House health plan to boost taxes on rich

By DAVID ESPO and ERICA WERNER,
Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON — House Democrats unveiled ambitious legislation Tuesday to remake the nation's health care system and called on medical providers, businesses and the wealthiest Americans to pick up the tab for President Barack Obama's top domestic priority. "This bill is a starting point and a path to success," House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, D-Calif., told a news conference where she and other Democratic leaders promised to pass a bill before the August congressional recess. Obama has pushed the House and Senate aggressively to stick to the timetable, in hopes of signing comprehensive legislation in October.

"We are going to accomplish what many people felt wouldn't happen in our lifetime," said Rep. Henry Waxman, D-Calif., chairman of one of three committees responsible for health care. Waxman, Pelosi and others stood before a banner that read: "Quality Affordable Health Care for the Middle Class."

The sweeping measure would impose penalties on employers who fail to provide health insurance for their workers and on individuals who refuse to buy it.

The bill, to be debated in committee beginning later this week, also would require insurance companies to offer coverage, without exceptions or higher premiums in cases of pre-existing medical conditions. It also would allow the government to sell insurance in competition with private firms, a provision that has sparked objections from Republicans and even some Democrats.

The bill's release came one day after President Barack Obama met with key Democrats in a White House session in which he told a powerful Senate chairman he wants legislation by week's end in his committee.

In all, the draft House bill runs more than 1,000 pages, and is designed to fulfill Obama's call for legislation that will extend coverage to millions who lack it, as well as begin to slow the rate of growth in health care generally.

In a statement, Obama praised the proposal, saying it "will begin the process of fixing what's broken about our health care system, reducing costs for all, building on what works and covering an estimated 97 percent of all Americans. And by emphasizing prevention and wellness, it will also help improve the quality of health care for every American."

Key elements of the legislation include federal subsidies for poorer individuals and families to help them afford coverage.

Financing would come from a federal surtax on the upper income — up to 5.4 percent on the income of taxpayers making more than $1 million a year — as well as hundreds of billions of dollars in cuts in projected Medicare and Medicaid spending.

The new income tax on the wealthy is estimated to raise more than $500 billion over the next decade, and reductions in Medicaid and Medicare would account for nearly as much.

Democrats did not say in advance what the overall legislation would cost.

NASA aiming for Wednesday shuttle launch, try 6

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — NASA is hoping the weather finally cooperates for its sixth launch attempt for space shuttle Endeavour.

Endeavour is poised to take off for the international space station early Wednesday evening, along with seven astronauts. Forecasters put the odds of good weather at 60 percent.

Thunderstorms have delayed the mission three times and hydrogen gas leaks have caused two delays. Endeavour holds the final piece of Japan's space lab, which should have flown last month.

NASA must launch Endeavour by Wednesday — possibly Thursday if managers agree to shorten the flight. Otherwise, the shuttle will have to step aside for a Russian supply run to the space station. That would bump the shuttle launch to July 26. □

HEALTH PLAN

Numerous issues remain subject to change as the bill makes its way through committee. In particular, moderate to conservative Democrats have been negotiating for several days, asking for changes affecting rural health care as well as other issues. Employers who do not offer coverage would be required to pay 8 percent of each uninsured worker's salary, with exemptions for smaller firms built into the legislation. Individuals who refused to buy affordable coverage would be assessed as much as 2.5 percent of their adjusted gross income, up to the cost of an average health insurance plan, according to the legislation.

The legislation would set up a new government-run health insurance program to compete with private coverage. The plan's payments to medical providers such as hospitals and doctors would be keyed to the rates paid by Medicare, which are lower than what private insurers pay. Eventually, all individuals and employers would be offered the option of joining the public plan. The insurance industry says that would drive many private insurers out of business. As House leaders unveiled their bill, the business community sent a letter to lawmakers charging that parts of the legislation would damage the country's medical system and economy. They cited the proposed government-run insurance plan, a federal council that would make some decisions on benefits and a requirement that employers provide health coverage or pay a new tax.

"Exempting some micro-businesses will not prevent this provision from killing many jobs," the letter said. "Congress should allow market forces and employer autonomy to determine what benefits employers provide, rather than deciding by fiat." Thirty-one major business groups signed the letter, including the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the Business Roundtable representing top corporate CEOs and the National Retail Federation.

Across the Capitol, the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee slogged toward passage of its version of the bill on what is expected to be a party-line vote.

Because of jurisdictional issues, the Senate Finance Committee, a separate panel, retains control over the drafting of provisions paying for any legislation.

Obama told the committee's chairman, Sen. Max Baucus, on Monday at the White House he wants legislation by week's end, officials reported. The president did not say whether he prefers a bipartisan bill, which Baucus has been trying to piece together with Sen. Charles Grassley of Iowa, or a bill tailored more to Democratic specifications.

Obama has urged Congress to pass legislation through both houses before lawmakers leave the Capitol on a summer vacation. While Pelosi and Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, D-Nev., have both expressed support for the timetable, their efforts have been slowed in recent days by internal squabbling.

Additionally, some House Democrats have privately expressed concern that they will be required to vote on higher taxes, only to learn later that the Senate does not intend to follow through with legislation of its own. That would leave rank and file House Democrats in the uncomfortable situation of having to explain their vote on a costly bill that never reached Obama's desk or became law.

In the Finance Committee some controversial issues remain unresolved, including how to pay for the bill and a Democratic demand for the government to sell insurance in competition with private industry, a proposal Republicans oppose strongly. Finance members have been laboring to produce a bipartisan bill, but Grassley, the panel's top Republican, told The Associated Press on Tuesday it's "still up in the air" whether any bill produced this week would be bipartisan. □

7 people in custody in slaying of Fla. Couple

This 2005 picture shows Byrd and Melanie Billings with their children, 10 adopted and two biological, at their home in Beulah, Fla. Melanie is holding a photograph of their late child, Bailey. Investigators asked the public to be on the lookout Friday, July 10, 2009 for a red van they believe carried three men involved in the deaths of the Florida Panhandle couple who were shot in their rural home while eight of their children slept.

By MELISSA NELSON and BILL KACZOR,
Associated Press Writer

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Masked suspects, some dressed as ninjas, stole a safe and other items during a deadly break-in at the sprawling Florida Panhandle home of a couple known for adopting children with special needs, authorities said Tuesday.

Melanie and Byrd Billings were shot to death Thursday in their nine-bedroom home. Escambia County Sheriff David Morgan hugged their sobbing adult daughter, Ashley Markham, at a press conference Tuesday to announce that three more people had been arrested, bringing the total to seven.

"It is my honor today to tell you, Ashley, and your family, we have found them and they are in custody," Morgan said. Investigators had said previously that there were many motives for the crime, but prosecutor Bill Eddins said Tuesday that robbery was the main one. He would not say what was in the safe or what else might have been taken from the house.

Nine of the couple's 17 children were home at the time and three saw the intruders but were not hurt.

Morgan said investigators were still looking for at least one more person in the case and at least one of the suspects in custody may have done work at the Billings home. He has previously said the suspects had no direct connection to the victims.

Several of the suspects were day laborers who knew each other through either a pressure washing business or a car detailing group, Morgan said. The arrests started Sunday with 56-year-old Leonard Gonzalez Sr., who was originally charged with evidence tampering but will be charged with murder, authorities said. He is accused of driving a red van seen on surveillance video pulling away from the Billings home and then trying to paint over it.

Hisson, 35-year-old Leonard P. Gonzalez Jr., was also arrested Sunday along with day laborer Wayne Coldiron, 41. Both were due in court Tuesday to face murder charges.

Another day laborer, Gary Lamont Sumner, 31, was arrested on a murder charge in a nearby county Monday after he was pulled over in a traffic stop. Morgan said investigators have placed Sumner at the scene, though he would not provide details.

Three more people were arrested Tuesday — a juvenile whom police did not identify; Frederick Lee Thorton Jr., 19; and Donnie Ray Stallworth, 28, who was arrested in Alabama but lives in Florida. The break-in was captured by an extensive video surveillance system the Billings used to keep tabs on their children.

Surveillance video showed three armed, masked men arriving in the red van, entering through the front of the house and then returning to the vehicle. Others dressed in what the sheriff called "ninja garb" went in through an unlocked utility door in the back. They were in and out in under 10 minutes.

"I think you'll find this particularly chilling and here's why: We have a team that enters at the rear of the home and another that enters at the front of the home," Morgan said.

"It leads me to believe this was a very well-planned and methodical operation," Morgan said, however, that there was no indication anyone had unlocked the door for the intruders, adding that people in the community felt comfortable leaving their doors unlocked.

The couple owned several local businesses, including a finance company and a used-car dealership. They lived in Beulah, a rural area west of Pensacola, near the Alabama state line, in a house set deep in the woods. They had 17 children in all — 13 of them adopted.

Tips from the public led police to the van on Saturday. □

Sotomayor denies bias in 'wise Latina' remark

By DAVID ESPO and MARK SHERMAN,

Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON — Supreme Court nominee Sonia Sotomayor firmly denied racial bias Tuesday at her Senate confirmation hearing and said an oft-criticized remark about her Hispanic heritage affecting judicial decisions was a rhetorical device gone awry.

An attempted play on words “fell flat” in a speech in 2001, Sotomayor told Sen. Jeff Sessions, R-Ala., referring to remarks in which she suggested that a “wise Latina woman” would usually reach a better conclusion than a white male.

“It was bad because it left an impression that I believed that life experiences commanded a result in a case, but that’s clearly not what I do as a judge,” Sotomayor said.

Sessions, the senior Republican on the Judiciary Committee, sounded unconvinced.

“As a judge who has taken this oath, I am very troubled that you would repeatedly over a decade or more make statements” like the one in 2001, he said.

On her first day of questioning, Sotomayor stopped just shy of saying that the right to abortion was settled law, said she would bring no preconceived notions to the high court on gun rights and explained a ruling recently overturned in the case of white New Haven, Conn., firefighters.

Republicans questioned Sotomayor closely, sometimes challenging her answers, on the second day of hearings. However, Democrats command a strong majority in the Senate as well as on the committee, and there appeared little or no doubt about her eventual confirmation as the first Hispanic to sit on the high court.

Sen. Patrick Leahy, D-Vt., the committee chairman, told reporters Sotomayor would be confirmed and added, “I’m convinced it will not be a party-line vote.”

During the questioning, Sotomayor leaned into the table in front of her and spoke deliberately. She used her hands to reinforce her words, raising and lowering them to the table with palms flat and fingers extended. She scribbled notes to herself as senators spoke and bobbed her head to underscore her statements in reply.

On an issue faced by all high court nominees, Sotomayor said the Constitution contains a right to privacy, a forerunner of the right to abortion that the high court first outlined in its 1973 Roe v. Wade ruling.

Questioned by Sen. Herb Kohl, D-Wis., she said the right to abortion is “the Supreme Court’s settled interpretation of what the core holding is,” as affirmed in a separate 1992 ruling.

The issue of abortion rights has been central to Supreme Court confirmation fights for two decades or more, and with her statement Sotomayor came close to saying the issue was settled law but stopped short of that flat declaration.

Moments later, in response to a question by Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, she said, “All precedents of the Supreme Court I consider settled law subject to” a great deal of deference but not absolute. Asked by Leahy about cases involving gun rights, Sotomayor’s response was more akin to a candidate’s than a nominee for the high court.

“Like, you, I understand how important the right to bear arms is to many, many Americans,” she said. “In fact, one of my godchildren is a member of the NRA and I have friends who hunt,” she said, adding she would have an open mind.

Sotomayor found common cause with Republicans on one issue.

When Hatch condemned the liberal group People for The American Way for its criticism of a New Haven, Conn., firefighter who figures in a key court case, Sotomayor said such action was “reprehensible” and nothing she would tolerate.

And she resisted attempts by some Democrats to draw her into potentially contentious areas. When Sen. Russell Feingold, D-Wis., asked whether the Supreme Court had made mistakes when it struck down Bush-era laws on policies relating to the war on terror, Sotomayor sidestepped.

“I smiled only because that’s not the way judges look at that issue,” she said. “We don’t decide whether mistakes were made. We look at whether action was consistent” with the Constitution and the law.

The committee schedule called for Sotomayor to field questions for hours as senators took 30-minute turns. Democrats were protective, occasionally offering her opportunities to counter her critics.

Kohl noted, for example, that in 17 years as a trial and appeals court judge, Sotomayor had rarely been overturned by the Supreme Court.

And he asked her sympathetically about an appeals court ruling that she joined that was recently reversed by the high court, in a case involving white firefighters in New Haven, Conn. He noted it was a 5-4 decision, and said, “Do you agree it was a close case and could have been decided one way or the other?”

She replied, “To the extent that reasonable minds can differ on any case, that’s true.”

Leahy was the first to ask about the “wise Latina” comment that has sparked so much controversy.

“I want to state upfront, unequivocally and without doubt: I do not believe that any racial, ethnic or gender group has an advantage in sound judging,” Sotomayor said. “I do believe that every person has an equal opportunity to be a good and wise judge, regardless of their background or life experiences.”

Leahy also raised the recent case about New Haven firefighters, in which the Supreme Court said white firefighters were wronged when the city threw out the results of a promotion exam because too few minorities did well.

She said the appeals court reached its decision because of precedent at the Supreme Court and at least one circuit court of appeals. But she said the ruling was overturned by the Supreme Court on the basis of a different standard □

Southwest checks planes after hole forces landing

An investigator looks at a hole on top of a Southwest Airlines plane which had to make an emergency landing in Charleston, W.V., Monday, July 13, 2009. Southwest Airlines ordered inspections of nearly 200 aircraft after a football-sized hole opened up in the passenger cabin of a plane during flight, forcing an emergency landing in West Virginia. Travelers on the 737 aircraft could see outside through the 1-foot-by-1-foot hole that appeared during the flight Monday. The cabin lost pressure, but no one was injured on the Nashville to Baltimore flight with 126 passengers and five crew members on board.

By DAVID KOENIG,
AP Airlines Writer

DALLAS — Southwest Airlines inspected nearly 200 planes and put them back in the sky Tuesday after a foot-long hole opened in the cabin of an identical jet, forcing the aircraft to make an emergency landing in West Virginia.

Passengers aboard a Nashville-to-Baltimore flight Monday said they could see through the hole above them, just in front of the plane's tail. The cabin lost pressure, but no one was injured on the flight, which carried 126 passengers and five crew members.

Passenger Michael Cunningham told NBC's "Today" show Tuesday that he had dozed off in his seat in mid-cabin when he was awakened by "the loudest roar I'd ever heard."

Cunningham said the hole was above his seat. People stayed calm and put on the oxygen masks that dropped from the ceiling.

"After we landed in Charleston, the pilot came out and looked up through the hole, and everybody applauded, shook his hand, a couple of people gave him hugs," he said.

Southwest said it was unclear what caused the damage.

The National Transportation Safety Board sent an investigator to the scene to interview the crew and examine maintenance and inspection records, but could take months to find a cause, said agency spokesman Keith Holloway.

The incident occurred just four months after Southwest agreed to pay $7.5 million to settle charges that it operated planes that had missed required safety inspections for cracks in the fuselage.

Southwest spokeswoman Marilee McInnis said the airline inspected its Boeing 737-300-series jets overnight at hangars around the country and discovered no cracks in any of the others.

"It was a walk-around visual inspection just to check for structural integrity," McInnis said.

Southwest flies 181 of the 137-seat 737-300. All its 544 jets are various models of the Boeing 737.

The planes that were inspected overnight were put back into routine service Tuesday morning, while the airliner that landed in West Virginia stayed there. Representatives from aircraft manufacturer Boeing were helping to determine cause of the hole, McInnis said.

Southwest operated a normal schedule of flights — about 3,300 per day — with no cancelations or delays through midday, McInnis said.

The hobbled airliner was placed in service during the 1990s and went through "routine maintenance" this month, McInnis said.

Experts said the tear could have been caused by damage from a dent or ding, or the plane's skin could have suffered from age-related fatigue. Jet cabins are pressurized and depressurized with every flight, which can cause tiny cracks over time. The Southwest jet was built in 1994.

Bill Voss, president of the Flight Safety Foundation in Alexandria, Va., said a finding of fatigue would be more frightening. If that were the cause, it could force the FAA to consider more rigorous inspections for older aircraft, he said. Alten "Skip" Grandt, an aeronautics professor at Purdue University who specializes in structural analysis, said that the fuselage of the Boeing jet performed as designed by preventing a sudden and catastrophic loss of pressure, and stopping the hole from expanding. □

LUCASVILLE, Ohio — A former truck driver from Oregon who went on a multistate killing spree was executed Tuesday for murdering an Ohio man who gave him a ride in February 1991.

John Fautenberry, 45, was pronounced dead at 10:37 a.m. at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility, about two hours after the U.S.

Ohio executes trucker who went on killing spree

Supreme Court denied a request to delay his execution on a claim that he had brain damage.

He was sentenced to death for killing Joseph Daron Jr., 46, who picked up the hitchhiking Fautenberry east of Cincinnati. Court records show Daron pleaded for his life before Fautenberry shot him and threw his body into a wooded area near the Ohio River.

Fautenberry gave up his right to a trial by jury in Cincinnati and pleaded no contest in July 1992 to two counts each of aggravated murder and grand theft and one count of aggravated robbery in Daron's death.

Fautenberry also confessed to killing four people in Alaska, Oregon and New Jersey over five months in late 1990 and early 1991.

In New Jersey, Fautenberry was convicted of manslaughter for killing fellow trucker Gary Farmer and received a life sentence.

In Alaska, Fautenberry pleaded guilty in the March 1991 fatal stabbing of Jefferson Diffie of Juneau and received a 99-year sentence.

Fautenberry confessed to shooting two people in the head in Oregon. Donald Nutley, whom Fautenberry met at a truck stop, was shot dead after the two went target shooting in November 1990. Christine Guthrie, a Portland bank teller, was killed in February 1991 after Fautenberry returned to the state from Ohio.

His Ohio defense attorney, Dennis Sipe, had argued that the state should pay a neuropsychologist to examine Fautenberry, whose last mental exam was 13 years ago. Sipe contended that Fautenberry should not be executed because he has brain damage from a childhood accident and from an injury while serving in the U.S. Navy.

Ohio has put 30 men to death since it reinstated the death penalty in 1999. Wilson is the first inmate executed in Ohio since June 3. □

DC mom accused of killing 4 daughters cited demons

By NAFEESA SYEED,
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — A woman accused of killing her four daughters told police in an interview that the girls were possessed by demons and that she got rid of most of the family's possessions to contain the evil spirits.

A District of Columbia Superior Court judge spent a second day Tuesday reviewing a recording of a police interrogation of Banita Jacks. The decomposing bodies of Jacks' daughters — ages 5 to 17 — were discovered in January 2008 when U.S. marshals came to evict her from her southeast Washington home.

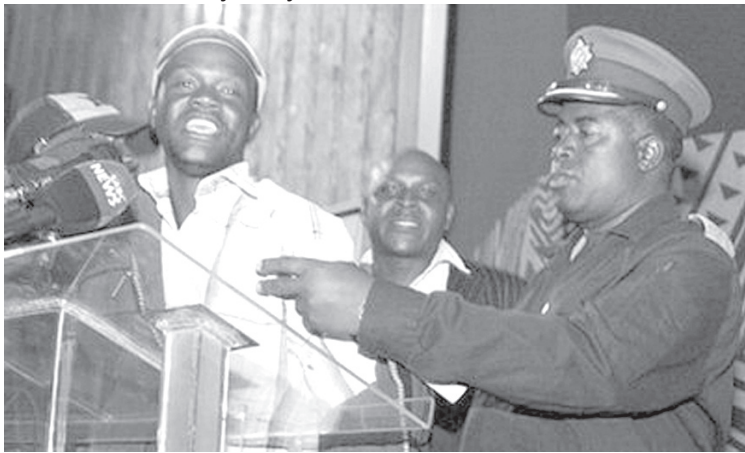

Judge Frederick Weisberg was to decide whether to admit the interview as evidence in her trial. Jacks' attorneys want it excluded. They say police were trying to get a confession from her before they had evidence that she was responsible. Weisberg will decide the case without a jury at Jacks' request. Jacks' lawyers have urged Jacks to use an insanity defense, but she has refused. Weisberg has found her competent to stand trial.

In the videotaped interview, Jacks said the girls stopped being her daughters and took on the identities of the demons.

"They got so bad," she said.

She said her eldest daughter, Brittany, was possessed by a demon she called "Jezebel," a prostitute who caused suffering and spread disease.

"With demon possession, you are a demon, period," Jacks says on the recording. □

HARARE (AFP) – Zimbabwe's constitution talks, violently disrupted by militant backers of President Robert Mugabe, resumed Tuesday with calls for tolerance in work on a charter meant to pave the way to fresh polls. Mugabe loyalists stormed into the opening session of the talks on Monday, pushing the zimbabwe talks resume after pro-Mugabe protest

speaker of parliament off the stage while singing anthems to Zimbabwe's 1970s liberation war.

Mugabe and Prime Minister Morgan Tsvangirai, who formed a unity government in February, gave a rare joint press conference late Monday to condemn the protest which left at least one person injured. "We want tolerance," lawmaker Douglas Mwonozora said as the talks resumed Tuesday. "We need freedom of expression... We want our people to be able to gather freely to give their views on the constitution."

The talks resumed under tight security, with baton-wielding riot police patrolling the conference centre while guards refused to allow anyone to enter without accreditation.

Under the unity deal, Zimbabwe is to draft a new constitution that will go before voters for approval in a referendum next year, clearing the way for fresh elections.

Tsvangirai's Movement for Democratic Change (MDC) has long pushed for constitutional changes that would rein in Mugabe's sweeping executive powers, many inherited from the repressive white-minority Rhodesian government that ended with independence in 1980.

But both parties insisted the constitution talks were not a political fight.

"We are going to ask our people what they want. We must be as fair, impartial and apolitical as possible. We must speak as Zimbabweans and not infringe on each other's rights," said Mwonozora, an MDC member.

"This conference is not politics, politicking and scoring political points," said Paul Mangwana, from Mugabe's ZANU-PF party. "We need to craft a constitution for generations to come."

The two-day meeting includes civic groups, trade unions, churches and lawmakers who will form teams to canvas the nation in public consultations on the new charter.

Although the militants who broke up the meeting on Monday were supporters of Mugabe's ZANU-PF party, led by one of the president's nephews, the 85-year-old leader appeared next to Tsvangirai late Monday to condemn the protest, saying the government "will not brook any further nonsense".

Mugabe rarely speaks out against actions by his party's supporters.

The opening session got off to a rocky start even before the protesters stormed in, with rival politicians heckling each other. The mood was more business-like Tuesday, without any jeering.

Debate over a constitution has been a powerful political undercurrent in Zimbabwe for more than a decade.

In 2000, Mugabe lost a referendum on a charter that would have expanded his already considerable presidential powers in his first electoral defeat since independence.

His loyalists began invading white-owned farms just one week later, in a campaign of land reforms often tied to political attacks.

Since then, farm production has plunged, leaving the one-time food exporter dependent on international aid.

The new government has halted the economic haemorrhaging that left the nation impoverished after a decade of world-record hyper-inflation.

But so far Mugabe has proved reluctant to accept major political reforms, maintaining control over security forces while pressing ahead with prosecutions of rights activists and MDC supporters. □

Switzerland offers legal assisted suicide

By The Associated Press

Some countries allow incurably sick residents to receive medical help to end their lives, but Switzerland also permits foreigners to travel there for assisted suicide. Every year more than 100 terminally ill people from countries that ban the practice travel to Switzerland for assisted suicide.

They typically follow these steps:

- Contact an organization that offers assisted suicide to foreigners. Many turn to Dignitas near Zurich.
- Dignitas charges 10,000 francs ($9,200) for its services, which include legal arrangements and consultations with a doctor willing to prescribe a lethal dose of barbiturates. The fees are payable in advance.
- When ready, the client goes to a room run by Dignitas, lies down on a bed and drinks the barbiturates. Sleep follows in about five minutes and death in a half hour.
- The body is removed. Dignitas recommends cremation. It says the ashes can be sent or taken abroad without problem.
- Polls have indicated a majority of Swiss support having assisted suicide available to residents of Switzerland, but are uncomfortable with having people travel from other countries for what critics call "suicide tourism."

4 survive crash in Germany between car, biplane

GROSSOSTHEIM, Germany – A family of three evaded what could have been a major, if not fatal, mishap after a sport biplane doing loops flew too low and collided with their car. Police in the town of Grossostheim, about 40 miles (60 kilometers) southeast of Frankfurt, said the plane's pilot was performing aerial acrobatic maneuvers when it flew too low and failed to pull up in time, striking the family's car near the small air field. Amateur video obtained by AP Television News shows the impact of Sunday's collision, which tore the bottom frame off the airplane and left it and the car in the nearby field. □

Liberia's ex-leader denounces war crimes charges

By ARTHUR MAX,
Associated Press Writer

THE HAGUE, Netherlands — His combat fatigues were replaced by a dark suit and tie, and the tinted aviator glasses gave the former Liberian leader a haughty air as he took the stand Tuesday to emphatically denounce the war crimes charges against him as “disinformation, misinformation, lies, rumors.” Charles Taylor, once one of West Africa’s most powerful men, is charged with 11 counts of murder, torture, rape, sexual slavery and the use of child soldiers and terrorism in his role backing rebels in Sierra Leone’s 1991-2002 civil war. An estimated 500,000 people were the victims of killings, systematic mutilation or other atrocities in that war, with some of the worst crimes committed by child soldiers who were drugged to desensitize them. The 61-year-old Taylor spoke with the confidence of a practiced politician as he began his defense by portraying himself as a peacemaker rather than the cannibalistic warlord described by prosecutors at the U.N.-backed Special Court for Sierra Leone.

“I am not guilty of all these charges, not even a minute part of these charges,” he said from the witness stand, raising his voice in anger. “This whole case is a case of deceit, deception and lies.”

Like other deposed leaders before him who faced judgment — Yugoslavia’s Slobodan Milosevic and Iraq’s Saddam Hussein — Taylor used his day in court to display devotion to his people and deflect allegations of wrongdoing.

Critics say the courts have been too lenient, giving men who led their countries into mayhem a chance to rewrite history. Many legal experts faulted Milosevic’s judges for letting the Serbian virtually seize control of the trial, which ended prematurely in 2006 when he died of a heart attack.

Prosecutors called 91 witnesses in pressing their case that Taylor provided arms, money and political support to Sierra Leone rebels in exchange for that country’s mineral wealth, encouraging them to terrorize the countryside to suppress any opposition.

Dozens of witnesses, some missing their hands, testified in the past 18 months to the brutality of the rebels. Other witnesses formerly associated with Taylor claimed to have passed weapons and messages to the rebels on Taylor’s orders and transferred illegally mined “blood diamonds” — sometimes in mayonnaise jars — in return.

Immediately addressing the worst accusations, his British attorney, Courtney Griffiths, asked Taylor to respond to charges that he is “everything from a terrorist to a rapist.” It is “very, very, very unfortunate that the prosecution — because of disinformation, misinformation, lies, rumors — would associate me with such titles or descriptions,” Taylor said, speaking slowly and pausing for emphasis. “I resent that characterization of me. It is false; it is malicious.”

He denied sponsoring the invasion of Sierra Leone, tolerating amputations, plotting the capture of the capital, Freetown, or receiving diamonds.

“People have me eating human beings. How can people bring themselves so low?” he said, dismissing the account of a former bodyguard who claimed to see Taylor eat a human liver.

Taylor’s case has been hailed as a landmark in efforts to hold autocratic leaders responsible for human rights abuses that occurred under their regimes — a theme that President Barack Obama struck earlier this month as he toured Ghana

In this image made from television broadcast Tuesday, July 14, 2009 by the International Criminal Court, former Liberian President Charles Taylor, address the U.N. backed Special Court for Sierra Leone. Wearing a gray double-breasted suit and dark glasses, Taylor spoke confidently as he introduced himself to the three-judge panel as the 21st president of the Republic of Liberia. It was his first time on the witness stand. Taylor is charged with 11 counts of murder, torture, rape, sexual slavery, using child soldiers and spreading terror during Sierra Leone’s 1991-2002 civil war. He is the first African leader to stand trial for war crimes.

and said, “Africa doesn’t need strongmen. It needs strong institutions.”

The case also may have contributed to an African backlash. An African Union summit earlier this month rallied behind Sudanese President Omar al-Bashir, who has been indicted by the International Criminal Court on charges of crimes against humanity in Darfur. Al-Bashir has refused to recognize the court or surrender, and the African leaders said they would not arrest and extradite him to The Hague for trial.

Taylor said he worked during his 1997-2003 presidency to rebuild Liberia after a devastating seven-year civil war and to broker a settlement in neighboring Sierra Leone. “We were just preoccupied with ... trying to bring Liberia back to life,” he said. “Unless peace came to Sierra Leone, there was no way Liberia could make it.” □

Mexico identifies 12 slain as federal agents

Federal police officers stand guard after a shooting against alleged drug traffickers in Tijuana, Mexico, early Saturday, July 11, 2009. According to police, an alleged drug trafficker were killed, two injured and two federal police officers were reported injured during the operation that was part of a wave of violence that claimed the lives of at least 13 people across Mexico.

By GUSTAVO RUIZ,
Associated Press Writer
MORELIA, Mexico – Twelve people tortured, slain and dumped along a mountain road in a drug-plagued Mexican state were off-duty federal agents, an official said

Tuesday. It is one of boldest attacks on federal forces since President Felipe Calderon launched his national war on drugs. Mexico's national security spokesman Monte Alejandro Rubido said the 11 men and one woman were investigating crime in President Felipe Calderon's home state of Michoacan, which has been a center of his crackdown on organized crime.

They were ambushed by members of the La Familia drug cartel, Rubido said. Their bodies were found piled up along a mountain highway late Monday near the town of La Huacana.

Michoacan state prosecutor J. Jesus Montejano initially said Tuesday that they were soldiers, but the army denied that. His office later acknowledged the mistake.

Initial reports indicated the victims were likely killed over the weekend, when federal agents arrested Arnoldo Rueda Medina, a chief of operations of the Michoacan-based La Familia cartel.

Police say his arrest Saturday set off a string of brazen attacks against federal forces that left six federal police officers and two soldiers dead. Heavily armed gunmen threw grenades and fired on federal police stations and hotels where the agents were staying in three states.

"Without a doubt La Familia is known for its violence ... we shouldn't be surprised by their reaction," Rubido said.

Federal forces arrested politicians in several of those cities, including La Huacana, during an unprecedented sweep in May. Seven mayors, one former mayor and the state prosecutor remain jailed accused of protecting the La Familia cartel. Since Calderon took office in December 2006, he has sent more than 45,000 troops to drug hot spots. More than 11,000 people have been killed in drug violence.

Michoacan has been wracked by a wave of killings and arrests in recent weeks.

On Tuesday, three bodies were found in the Michoacan town of Nuevo Urecho. □

Talks to end Honduras' crisis to resume Saturday

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras – The chief mediator in talks to end Honduras' political crisis on Tuesday called both sides back to the table, a day after the ousted leader gave the interim government an ultimatum to reinstate him.

Costa Rican President Oscar Arias said talks will resume Saturday after two rounds of earlier negotiations failed to produce a breakthrough in the standoff over who is the legitimate leader of Honduras.

Arias also urged Manuel Zelaya, who was toppled by a military-backed coup June 28, to "be patient."

"I understand the desire of President Zelaya to return and reinstate himself as president of Hondurans as soon as possible, but my experience tells me that one has to be a little patient," said Arias, who won the 1987 Nobel Peace Prize for his efforts in ending Central America's wars. "It's not easy to get results in 24 hours."

Arias said he would meet Tuesday with delegates from both sides to work out logistics before Saturday.

Zelaya, who is recognized by virtually all foreign governments, is clearly frustrated by the slow movement of negotiations.

"We are giving the coup regime an ultimatum," Zelaya said Monday at a news conference in Nicaragua.

If the interim government does not agree to reinstate him at the next round of negotiations, "the mediation effort will be considered failed and other measures will be taken," he said. He did not say what those measures would be.

Zelaya was headed to Guatemala on Tuesday to meet with his left-leaning counterpart, President Alvaro Colom.

At the swearing-in ceremony for a new foreign minister Monday, interim President Roberto Micheletti said his delegates are "ready for another meeting."

Micheletti's administration has insisted that Zelaya was ousted legally and has refused to bend on reinstating him.

The interim government has been trying to restore life to normal this week in the impoverished Central American nation by lifting a nighttime curfew in place since the coup and successfully urging tens of thousands of Honduran teachers and students to return to class.

Zelaya accused Micheletti's government of using the talks "as a means to distract attention" from repression in Honduras, where protests for and against Zelaya's return have filled the streets, though they have waned in recent days.

Members of Micheletti's administration did not immediately respond to Zelaya's comments.

The coup has drawn international condemnation and nations, including the United States, have asked that Zelaya be reinstated. □

Italy denounces UN complaint over refugees

ROME (AFP) – Italy has demanded an apology from the UN refugee agency in an angry response Tuesday to a complaint that a group of African would-be immigrants were mistreated. European Affairs Minister Andrea Ronchi said the UNHCR should be ashamed of the “repugnant and false” accusations against Italy’s armed forces, which he said had been made without even checking the facts with Rome. The UNHCR statement alleged that some of the refugees were injured during transfer to another vessel, that some of their belongings were never returned to them and that their possible refugee status was never checked.

The Italian navy intercepted a boat carrying 82 migrants on July 1 near the southern Italian island of Lampedusa, said the office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees. Italy transferred them to a Libyan ship and returned them to Libya, where UNHCR subsequently interviewed them.

“During interviews UNHCR heard disturbing accounts alleging that force was used by Italian personnel during the transfer to the Libyan vessel,” said a statement from the refugee agency.

Six people from Eritrea needed medical attention as a result, it added. Some of those they interviewed had also said that their possessions, including vital documents, were never returned to them by Italian naval personnel, said the UNHCR.

“Those interviewed spoke of their distress after four days at sea and said that the Italian Navy did not offer them any food during the 12-hour operation to return them to Libya,” the statement continued.

“In view of the seriousness of these allegations the UNHCR has sent a letter to the Italian government requesting information on the treatment of people returned to Libya and asking that international norms be respected,” it said.

UNHCR spokesman Ron Redmond also said: “Based on subsequent interviews, it does not appear that the Italian Navy made any attempt to establish nationalities or reasons for fleeing their countries.”

Their inquiries suggested that 76 of the would-be refugees were from Eritrea including nine women and at least six children, he added.

“Based on UNHCR’s assessment of the situation in Eritrea and our interviews with the people themselves, it is clear that a significant number from this group are in need of international protection,” said Redmond.

Reacting to the allegations, Ronchi said he had “read with amazement the UNHCR’s letter, which makes heavy accusations against the government.”

He demanded an apology from the UNHCR, calling the allegations “hasty, false, demagogical, offensive and repugnant, hurting our armed forces who show the world their morality, humanity, competence and sacrifice every day.”

He said the refugee agency

Some 355 would-be immigrants from Eritrea disembark on arrival by boat in the port of Italy’s southern island of Lampedusa in 2008. The UN refugee agency complained Tuesday to the Italian government over “disturbing” allegations that a group of mainly Eritrean would-be immigrants had been mistreated.

(AFP/File/Mauro Seminara)

“should be ashamed (for) these repugnant and false accusations,” the ANSA news agency reported.

Ronchi added: “What perplexes us the most is that the UN High Commissioner for Refugees would issue a communique without checking the testimony that was gathered with the Italian authorities.”

The migrants spent four days at sea before being picked up after sending out an SOS message for help.

The UNHCR has been sharply critical of an agreement between Italy and Libya that allows the Italian navy to intercept illegal migrants at sea and return them to Libya, from where they had often set off for Europe. □

Iran: Few words for China but plenty for Germany

Iranian female worshippers carry a symbolic coffin of Marwa Al-Sherbini, an Egyptian woman who was stabbed repeatedly inside a German courtroom earlier this month, during a rally condemning her slaying, in Tehran, Iran, Friday, July 10, 2009. Al-Sherbini was attacked by a Russian-born German during his trial on charges of insulting her with racial slurs.

By REBECCA SANTANA,
Associated Press Writer

CAIRO — Iran has reacted with outrage over the stabbing death of an Egyptian woman in a German courthouse, calling it a sign of racism against Muslims, yet has said little about China's crackdown on Uighur Muslims — a silence some leading Iranian clerics have criticized.

The differing reaction from a country that portrays itself as a defender of Islam worldwide is a sign of how highly Iran values its political and economic ties with China and how Tehran is trying to deflect attention following its own crackdown on protesters after the country's disputed presidential election.

Iran has been one of the most vocal countries criticizing Germany in the wake of Marwa al-Sherbini's death. The pregnant 31-year-old Egyptian was stabbed 18 times in a Dresden court July 1 by a man she was scheduled to testify against for allegedly calling her a "terrorist." When he tried to protect her, her husband was stabbed by the attacker and shot by court security.

Some 1,500 Iranian women gathered in front of the German Embassy in Tehran on Tuesday chanting "Death to the enemy of hijab" — a reference to the hijab, or Islamic headscarf that el-Sherbini wore, Iran's state news agency reported.

Judiciary chief Ayatollah Mahmoud Shahrudi called for German court officials who were present when al-Sherbini was killed to face trial, state-run Press TV reported. Iran's ambassador to UNESCO complained to the organization's director over what he called the desecration of Islamic values in European countries.

Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad on Sunday called al-Sherbini's death "absolute proof of the brutality of the German government."

Iran is one of the few Muslim countries to speak out on the China crackdown on Uighurs in the country's western Xinjiang region. More than 180 people have died in violence that began there July 5. The Uighurs complain about government restrictions on their religion and accuse it of trying to erase their language and culture.

But Iran's official criticism of China has been mild, limited to a phone call Sunday by Iranian Foreign Minister Manouchehr Mottaki to his Chinese counterpart to discuss the clashes and raise Islamic countries' "concern." Mottaki also denounced "foreign meddling" aimed at "undermining China's stability," implicitly blaming the West for the Xinjiang unrest.

Some Iranian clerics have called for Iran to take a stronger stance, in comments that often seem to also be criticizing Iran's own conduct at the same time. Following June 12 elections, Iran suppressed widespread protests claiming fraud in Ahmadinejad's victory. In the crackdown, police and baton-wielding Basij militiamen assaulted demonstrators, arresting hundreds in a crackdown that left at least 20 protesters dead.

In a statement carried on his Web site Sunday, Ayatollah Yusef Saanei denounced the Chinese government's "aggressive and inhuman stance." But his comments appeared intentionally phrased to point at Iran's crackdown as well.

"Is this how they claim to be willing to join the international community, by putting down the protests of their citizens and answering their cries for justice with electric batons ... bringing out the militia and silencing any protests," said Saanei, who has criticized the Iranian government directly in other statements.

Another senior cleric, Ayatollah Nouri Hamedani said the situation in China was an even greater crime than what had happened in Germany and said Iran should not remain silent, Press TV reported Monday.

"That's pretty much pointing a finger at their own regime," said Michael Wahid Hanna, an Iran analyst at the New York-based Century Foundation.

In denouncing Germany so vocally, analysts say Iran seeks to divert domestic and international attention following the election.

Many Western countries, including Germany, criticized Iran for its suppression of protesters.

Attacking Germany is a way to portray the Western world as "anti-Islamic" and drum up sympathy within Iran, said Alireza Nader, an Iran specialist with the Washington-based RAND Corp. think tank, although he questioned whether the tactic would work with an already disillusioned Iranian public.

But Iran "can't really afford to antagonize China at this point because China is one of the few world powers who really has cordial relations with Iran," said Nader.

China has used its clout on the U.N. Security Council in part to prevent harsh sanctions against Iran for its nuclear program, and China's status as Iran's single largest trading partner make needling China a much riskier affair.

When protests were heating up in Tehran over the legitimacy of Ahmadinejad's win, Chinese President Hu Jintao congratulated him on his victory. □

In month's turmoil, Iran death toll still unknown

By LEE KEATH,
Associated Press Writer

CAIRO — Several dozen families camp outside Iran's daunting Evin prison, trying to learn the fate of loved ones who vanished in post-election turmoil. A month into the government crackdown, the number of killed and arrested remains unknown, but human rights groups believe the death toll is far higher than the official figure of 20.

Many of at least 500 known to have been arrested have disappeared in prisons, held in secret locations and barred from contact with families. Rights groups say perhaps dozens of others have not been heard of since the protests and their relatives still cannot determine whether they are now locked in a cell or dead.

Over the weekend, about 50 men and women held vigil in Tehran before the gates of Evin, the main prison for political detainees, waiting for news on whether their relatives are inside, a witness told The Associated Press. Some of the women read aloud softly from the Quran, others chanted "God is great" from time to time. But mostly they stood silent, the witness said.

"They will call you soon. Go home and wait for the phone to ring," a police officer told them. But the families remained in place. The witness spoke on condition of anonymity fearing retribution from authorities, and government restrictions imposed on the media barred photographing the gathering.

The crackdown on the gigantic rallies that broke out after Iran's disputed June 12 presidential election was chaotic. Not only regular police, but also plainclothes Basiji militiamen linked to the elite Republican Guards were involved in beating or firing on protesters, dragging some away in covered trucks to unknown locations.

The protests were sparked when opposition candidate Mir Hossein Mousavi claimed he was the victor and that official results showing a victory for hard-line incumbent Mahmoud Ahmadinejad were fraudulent.

At the same time, security forces launched a sweep that continues weeks later against pro-reform politicians, lawyers, journalists, women's rights and other activists. Many were arrested from their homes or offices and the roundup effectively stripped away a senior level of the reform movement's political leadership.

It took 26 days for the family of Sohrab Aarabi to learn his fate after the 19-year-old disappeared during a June 15 protest. After weeks of asking at courts and prisons for him, his family was told Saturday that he had been shot in the chest during the protest and died, the New York-based International Campaign for Human Rights in Iran reported.

Aarabi was buried Monday in the vast Behesht-e-Zahra cemetery on the outskirts of Tehran.

But confirmation of his death only raised more questions.

His body did not appear before the coroner until June 19, and it was not known if he died immediately of his wounds, was hospitalized or was detained at any point, the group said, citing the family.

Hadi Ghaemi, spokesman for the rights group, said there could be "dozens or even hundreds" of missing people like Aarabi, based on accounts from inside Iran that his group is investigating. □

U.S. teen nears end of round-the-world sailing trip

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Southern California teenager Zac Sunderland sailed back into U.S. waters in the middle of the night and was soon enjoying chocolate cake and room service.

He's already thinking about his next adventure, even as he prepares to finish this one.

The 17-year-old Sunderland has about 100 miles to go to become the youngest person to sail around the world alone. He's due in Marina del Rey, in the Los Angeles area, at 10 a.m. PDT Thursday, 13 months and two days after he left.

"It's all but over right now," Sunderland said late Monday morning. "I'd do it again in a heartbeat. It's been an amazing year. Tons of fun, lots of great stuff."

Sunderland pulled into San Diego overnight aboard his 36-foot boat, Intrepid. He cleared customs -- "It's good; I'm in," he said -- and had to get his engine repaired. He uses it for going into and out of ports, and in case of emergencies.

"It doesn't really matter, but I'd rather not get towed into the harbor that you finish in,"

he said with a laugh.

The shaggy-haired Sunderland, who's from Thousand Oaks, northwest of L.A., hoped to be under way again by Monday afternoon but was delayed. He now hopes to leave by Tuesday afternoon. He might pull into a small harbor between San Diego and Los Angeles for a day or two so he can perfectly time his arrival.

Sunderland was 16 when he left Marina del Rey on June 14, 2008.

His total trip is estimated at 28,000 miles.

"A big circle," he said.

Along the way he encountered a boat full of pirates and severe storm damage. He also had few enjoyable times such as surfing while waiting for his boat to be repaired on an island in the Indian Ocean.

"I don't know what to think right now," he said. "It's kind of crazy with this whole yearlong endeavor drawing to a close. It'll be awesome to see my friends, have a little bit of summer left. I'm still figuring out what's going on next."

He was met on his arrival in San Diego by his father,

Laurence, a younger brother and a friend who brought "a massive hunk of chocolate cake. It was probably a foot and a half long. We gorged on that, got room service. We had a good night."

Sunderland's progress up the Mexican coast was slowed by wind, current and a cracked bulkhead that forced him into port for repairs. His father is a shipwright and has met him at various stops around the world.

Sunderland turns 18 on Nov. 29. The record for the youngest solo circumnavigation is held by an Australian who was 18 years, 41 days when he completed his voyage in 1996.

Also trying for the record is 17-year-old British sailor Mike Perham, who is a few months younger than Sunderland and sailing a bigger, faster boat. Perham has had breakdowns and had been forced to stop in New Zealand for repairs, but could supplant Sunderland in the record book.

Sunderland said he'd like to climb Mount Everest.

"I love adventure," he said. "I want to do some more research on it see if I can make that happen and see if I can do it without a guide." □

Phoenix Suns buy out Ben Wallace

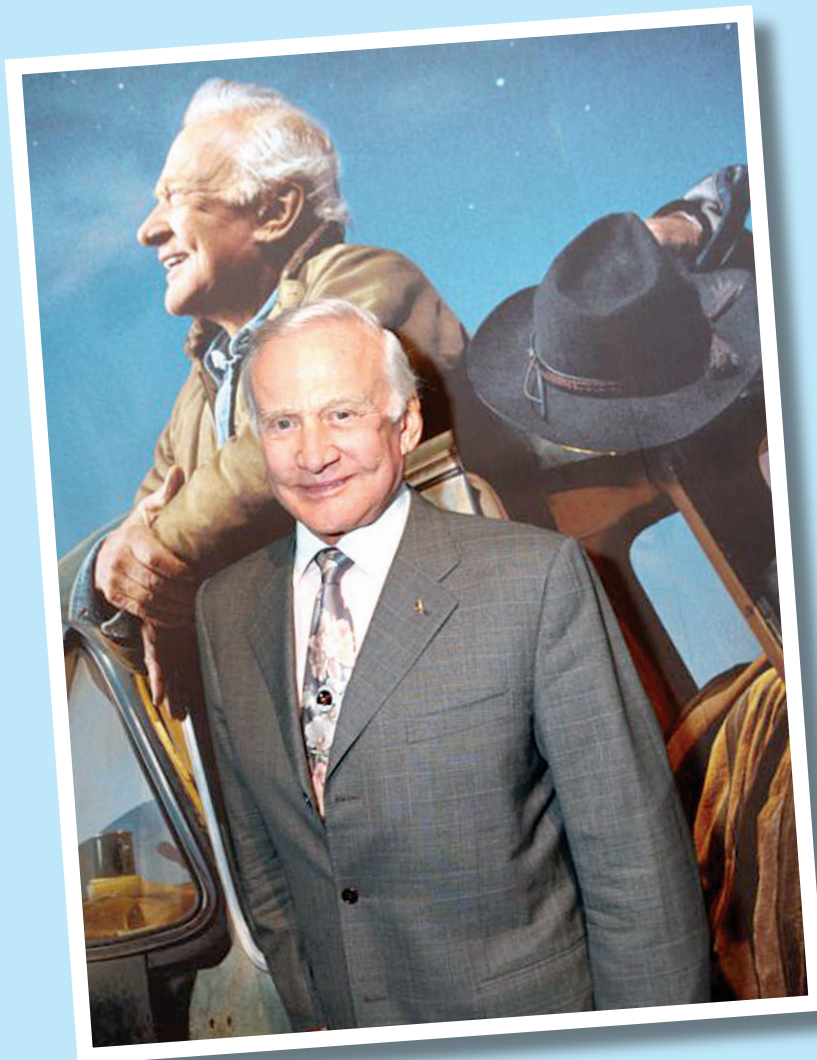

PHOENIX- Ben Wallace, acquired by the Phoenix Suns in the trade that sent Shaquille O'Neal to the Cleveland Cavaliers, has been bought out of his contract, the Arizona Republic reported. The team agreed to pay Wallace $10 million for a contract that would have paid him $14 million in 2009-10, according to the report. Wallace, the NBA's defensive player of the year in 2006, was hampered by injuries last season and has said he is considering retirement.

Wallace averaged 6.5 rebounds and 2.9 points per game in 56 games for the Cavaliers this season, well below his career averages of 10.3 rebounds and 6.2 points per game.

According to the report, the buyout could save the Suns $8 million, because the team's payroll is projected to exceed the league $69.9 million luxury tax limit -- above which teams must pay a dollar-for-dollar penalty for salaries in excess of that figure. It also frees up funds for the Suns to sign forward Grant Hill and Channing Frye. □

Fielder wins Home Run Derby

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Prince Fielder's approach at the plate is perfect for the Home Run Derby.

"I'm not quite sure about my mechanics. I just know I have to swing hard," Fielder said. "In high school, a lot of people told me to swing easier and everything, but I just don't know how to do that."

He sure knows how to hit.

With hometown sluggers Albert Pujols and Ryan Howard eliminated early, Fielder won the derby Monday night with a steady power display that included a jaw-dropping drive estimated at 503 feet.

The Milwaukee Brewers' first baseman topped Texas outfielder Nelson Cruz 6-5 in the finals at Busch Stadium to take home a title that St. Louis fans hoped would go to one of their own.

"It's what I expected. This is Albert's stadium and Ryan is from here," Fielder said. "I was just happy I was able to put on a show and I'm glad I won."

Pujols, the Cardinals' big first baseman, and Howard, who grew up in the Gateway City and plays for the Philadelphia Phillies, were knocked out in the second round.

"I wish I would have put on a better show for our fans," Pujols said. "I was nervous a little bit."

This year's All-Star festivities were supposed to belong to Pujols in his home ballpark. But Fielder snatched the spotlight in baseball's annual warmup for tonight's Midsummer Classic.

With three outs remaining in the final round, Fielder smacked a drive onto the grassy hill in center field to clinch the crown. He posed for a moment with his bat held high, then embraced teammate Ryan Braun near home plate. Fielder started out using a bat that belonged to injured Milwaukee teammate Rickie Weeks, then switched to Braun's stick.

"It was a little longer," Fielder said. "Once I grabbed his bat, it felt pretty good."

Fielder, the son of former big league slugger Cecil Fielder, became the youngest player to hit 50 homers in 2007 at age 23. But that season, he was eliminated in the first round of the Home Run Derby at San Francisco.

"I knew what to expect this time so I was a little more relaxed," he said. "I think it's very competitive. I don't think (any) of the guys would be here if they weren't. But it's fun at the same time."

Fielder and Cruz both made their major league debuts in 2005 with the Brewers - and each has 22 home runs this year. Cruz, enjoying a breakout season, was a late addition to the All-Star roster because of an injury to Los Angeles Angels outfielder Torii Hunter.

Fielder finished with 23 home runs, most in the contest, and hit the four longest shots of the night.

"He had a very nice rhythm," said batting practice pitcher Sandy Guerrero, Fielder's minor league batting coach. "He kept his cool, he relaxed." □

Chiefs sign Cassel to long-term deal

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) -- Kansas City has not officially named Matt Cassel its starting quarterback, but there can be no doubt now.

After praising his leadership and work ethic through spring workouts, the Chiefs announced Tuesday they had signed the 27-year-old Cassel to a multiyear contract. Terms were not disclosed, but he will almost certainly be one of the highest-paid members of the team. "We are excited to be able to reach a long-term agreement for Matt Cassel to be a Kansas City Chief for many years to come," owner and board chairman Clark Hunt said in a statement. "His proven leadership on and off the field will be a tremendous asset to the organization."

A lifelong backup until Tom Brady went down with a season-ending knee injury last September, Cassel was obtained from the Patriots during the offseason along with linebacker Mike Vrabel. The former seventh-round pick led New England to an 11-5 record and the Patriots made him their franchise player, meaning his salary for this season will be about $15 million. New head coach Todd Haley, taking over for Herm Edwards after a 2-14 season, refused to name a starter at any position during offseason workouts. But it was obvious to everyone the team belonged to Cassel. "I go out there each and every day with that focus that I'm the starter," Cassel said during a June minicamp. "Competition brings out the best in everybody."

The signing will come as welcome news to Cassel's new coaches and teammates. Amiable and hardworking, he appeared to win over everyone at minicamp.

"I think he's got some unique leadership qualities. I think his teammates like him and have respect for him. I think he's doing a pretty good job on the field, too," Haley said last month. "He's doing everything that I'm asking him, that our coaches are asking him to do. I don't have one single complaint how he's carrying himself."

After one workout, wide receiver Devard Darling declared Cassel "a breath of fresh air."

"He has a lot of swagger, a lot of confidence. It's good for us," said Darling. "We trust in him that he's going to go out there and lead us all the way."

Unsettled quarterback play was a big factor in KC's franchise-worst, two-win finish last year. Early in the season, they were down to third-stringer Tyler Thigpen, and had to adjust to a spread offense to accommodate his specific abilities.

Trapped on the bench behind Heisman winners Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart at USC and then unable to unseat Super Bowl MVP Brady at New England, Cassel seemed destined to be a backup all his life. As Brady was helped off the field last September, Cassel seized the opportunity he'd been waiting for since high school.

In his only sustained action since his teens, he hit 349 of 555 passes for 3,949 yards at New England. He had 23 touchdown passes and 13 interceptions as the Patriots, who had gone unbeaten through the regular season the year before, finished 11-5 and out of the playoffs.

Chiefs general manager Scott Pioli, who had been Bill Belichick's assistant in New England, engineered the trade after the Patriots became convinced that Brady would recover fully from his knee operation. □

Fiscalía de Ecuador pide a juez que canalice pedido de extradición de Santos

Quito - El fiscal general ecuatoriano, Washington Pesántez, afirmó ayer que dispuso que el agente fiscal se dirija al juez que lleva el caso del bombardeo del Ejército colombiano a un campamento de las FARC en Ecuador para que solicite la extradición del ex ministro de Defensa de Colombia Juan Manuel Santos.

Pesántez declaró a los periodistas que “cuando se expide una orden de prisión preventiva y la persona imputada se encuentra fuera del territorio de un país lo que procede es pedir la extradición”.

Por eso, dispuso “que el agente fiscal se dirija al juez penal para que canalice la extradición” del ex ministro, sobre el que pesa una orden de prisión preventiva, con fines de investigación, por su implicación en el bombardeo colombiano.

El fiscal general explicó que, si acepta el pedido, el juez tendrá que dirigirse entonces al presidente de la Corte Nacional de Justicia, “que es el encargado de implementar la extradición del señor Santos”.

Pesántez, además, acusó al ex ministro colombiano de no demostrar “la valentía que mostró cuando anunció que él era el autor (intelectual del ataque) y que iría a cualquier parte con las mismas acciones”.

“Yo quería que si él es responsable políticamente en sus hechos se responsabilice jurídicamente” también, concluyó.

El juez primero de lo penal de la provincia ecuatoriana de Sucumbíos, Daniel Méndez, ordenó el pasado 29 de junio la detención de Santos, en el marco de la investigación sobre el bombardeo militar colombiano efectuado el 1 de marzo de 2008 contra un campamento ilegal de las FARC en Ecuador. ta biba un separacion marital nan mes compara cu 10% di esnan cu nan mayornan nunca a separa.

Tambe, parehanan cu ta den nan di dos of di tres matrimonio tin 90% mas chens di separa di nan casa compara cu esnan cu ta ambos den nan prome matrimonio. No ta sorprende cu placa tambe ta hunga un rol, cu 16% di e encuestadonan indicando cu nan tabata pover of caminda e homber ta esun sin trabou y a separa; compara cu djis 9% di pareha cu finanzas saludable.

Y e parehanan caminda un persona, y no e otro, ta huma tambe tin mas chens di tin un relacion cu ta caba den fracaso.

Factornan cu aparentemente no ta afecta e riesgo di separacion ta inclui e cantidad y edad di yiunan nace den matrimonio, e status di trabou di e hende muher of e cantidad di aña cu e pareha tin ta traha.

REMETIDO

Sugerencia pa Gobierno re-instala e “Plan di Registracion 2009”

Hopi añanan pasa despues cu nos Compania Petrolero Lago a sera su portanan AVP a gana e eleccion y durante e promer 100 dia di gobernacion y e promer bishita di Minister Jan de Koning di Hulanda mi persona a entrega e gobierno nobo diferente planes y ideanan y con pa realiza esaki pa e cambionan necesario pa nos comunidad. Pa Minister Watty Vos [que en paz descanse] Minister di Justicia mi a entrega un Rampenbeleidsplan, cual conseho tabata traha riba un nivel hopi extenso. Un plan cu tabata contene informacion valioso a base di tur e tratadonan rekeri di Geneve pa asina nos yega na un Nationaal Rampen Plan pa Aruba. Mi a sugeri Minister Vos pa yama un reunion y a dune un lista di invitado di tur e personanan clave pa yega na un decision. Mi a entrega un copia na KABNA y a pidi si pa medio di ayudo tecnico di Hulanda por manda nos un rampen deskundige pa asina nos yega na un draaiboek pa un Nationaal Rampenbeleid. E plan tabata encera tambe pa Gobierno establece un fondo di disaster {Rampen Fonds} y stipula un Plan pa Luchthaven Beleid y un Commando Plan pa Polis y Brandweer. Depues Hospital Oracio Oduber a tuma e iniciativa pa traha nan propio Plan di accion. Awe na aña 2009 mi ta sumamente preocupa y ta puntra mi mes na unda nos ta para awor. Nos mester puntra nos mes si en berdad Aruba ta prepara si un desastre serio pasa of si nos wordu confronta cu un epidemia a consecuencia di malesa di un of otro virus. Antes tur responsabilidad y fondonan di disaster tabata parti den. Gobierno hunto cu diferente companianan di seguro. Tur hunto tabata carga e riesgonan riba nos Isla. Kere mi tin hopi respect y elogio pa e manera cu Gobierno a handle e situacion di un alarma di Swine

Flu virus riba un barco crusero den nos haf. Un sucedido inespera cu a costa gobierno y comunidad di Aruba hopi placa Practica a demostra cu gobierno su so pa diferente factor no por garantiza y carga e responsabilidad financiero di nos cuidio medico general. Nos mester ta realistico y no para keto. Nos gobierno mester percura pa sigura su mes adicional pa cualkier calamidad. Nos mester investiga y studia kico ta e factornan cu a causa e fayonan. Asina so nos ta prepara pa busca un solucion pa garantiza un mejor nivel di nos cuidio medico general den un forma mas profesional pa futuro. Den e mesun temporada di 100 dia di gobernacion mi persona a entrega un conseho pa un “Plan de Registracion” na Minister Mito Croes, cu e tempo ey tabata nombra como e futuro Minister di asuntonan Social y Educacion. Den e Plan di Registracion mi a sugeri Minister Croes pa e colecta e data di tur familianan cu a keda sin trabou pa asina nos por hasi un estudio pa wak si nos por laga tur e personanan aki por participa den un plan pa “her om en bijscholing {enseñanza pa empleo} y asina duna nan un chens nobo den un otro ramo di trabou. Awor na aña 2009 nos ta wak con historia ta ripiti su mes. Mi ta preocupa cu si nos no actua por lo pronto nos lo haya nos mes confronta cu un escalacion di problemanan social y aumento di criminalidad riba nos Isla. Nos ta comprende cu parti di e problema a wordu causa door di circunstancianan fuera di nos alcanza pero nos no por sigui sinta man cruza y duna culpa na e crisis economico. Esnan cu kier bay forma nos Gobierno mester bini cu ideanan nobo y creativo pa busca solucionnan positivo constructivo pa futuro desarrollo di nos pais. Hopi hende a keda of por lo pronto ta bay keda sin trabou. Nos muchanan ta sufri pa e consecuencianan y tin mucha cu ta bay scol cu hamber. Den e Plan anterior di Registracion despues cu Lago a sera mi persona a sugeri pa e Gobierno di AVP habri un banco di cuminda riba nos Isla na unda nos por yuda e familianan cu a keda sin entrada haya paketenan cu cuminda di primer necesidad. Prome Minister Henny Eman no a gusta e idea mucho pasobra e tabata zona como mal propaganda pa su gobierno nobo. Esaki ta di comprende pero no ta soluciona e problema. Danki Dios, tempo a cambia, y Sr Mike Eman si ta reconoce e problema y awor ta purba hasi algo al respecto.

Ora mi no a haya sosten di Gobierno pa establece e banco di cuminda mi persona a introduci e idea na Woman’s Club y tur cabesante di tur e scolnan basico y International School di Aruba pa wak si cu yudanza di mayor y alumno nos por sigui cu e idea na unda tur mucha di scol por yuda pa nan por ehempel un biaha pa siman entrega na scol un paquete chikito den forma di cualkier cuminda di primer necesidad. E acogida tabata exitoso y pesey mi ta sugeri pa e organizacion concerni ripiti e plan pa habri un Mercado pa un banco di cuminda pa asina nos yuda esnan den necesidad. Mi ta spera cu hunto nos por resolve e problema pa asina nos evita un escalacion di problemanan social den nos comunidad. Mi ta desea esnan cu ta traha duro pa un Aruba den Futuro hopi exito. Al final mi kier ta bon cla cu mi persona semper a duna ideanan y sugerencia pa cualkier gobierno y semper na bienestar general di nos comunidad, sin afiliacion cu ningun partido politico

Traha sandwich dushi y tog dietetico...

Nan no mester haci bo gordo ni ta poco nutritivo. Djis traha nan dushi pa bo smak y beneficioso pa bo salud y figura.

ORANJESTAD – Aunke nan ta un cuminda lihe pa prepara y mas pa come, no mester haci bo gordo ni ta poco nutritivo. Si bo traha nan di un manera cu tin poco calorìa y hopi nutriente, combina nan den un alimentacion balanza, completo y varia, y come nan cu moderacion, nan por duna hopi salud y bon smak.

Beneficio pa Salud

No considera nan un cuminda light, sandwich ta hopi mas cu djis ham cu keshi y pan. Y tambe hopi mas cu djis un cuminda facil pa ora bo no tin tempo, no tin gana di cushina of mester haci lihe pa snack entre cuminda, come den pura of durante un biahe. Nutriologo Gregorio Mariscal ta splica con pa traha sandwich delicioso pa bo paladar y bon pa bo figura y salud:

- Elimina Vet. Vet no solamente ta menaza bo figura, pero tambe e salud di bo curazon. Pa baha nan, kita e rand di vet for di beleg y e cuero di galiña etc. Busca mayonnaise y sousnan sin vet, traha nan cu yoghurt, jus di lamunchi of blanco di webo na lugar di azeta.

- Scoge ingrediente lean. Traha sandwich cu ingrediente cu proteina y poco calorìa. Scoge carni y beleg sin vet, lubida di cosnan hasa y di sousnan cu hopi calorìa. Bo por uza djis tin biaha pero nunca abusa di nan. E patenan ta dushi pero demasiado vet, uza nan djis como toke y no como ingrediente principal. Tambe evita e keshinan bieu of hopi vet.
- E pan mas recomendable. Ta e integral, cu cereal y simiyanan pasobra tin mas substancia nutritivo y fibra, cu ta yena mas bo stoma, kitando mas liher e apetit compara cu pan blanco.

- Pan cu balor extra. Multicereal, di centeno, trigo, trigo germina, simiya di girasol, simiya di amapola, soya, muesli, siboyo, garlic, etc. Den supermarket ta haya hopi tipo di pan pa duna variedad y mas smaak na bo sandwich.
- Cu mas proteina. Combina cu mas tanto cos bon manera ham di turkey breast, carninan manera galiña of smoked turkey, y cuminda di lama manera tuna.
- Hincá Berdura. Cua cu ta e ingrediente principal di bo sandwich, tuna, turkey breast, galiña, keshi fresco, salmou, hincá semper berdura manera tomati, concomber, lechuga, sparago, champiñon, promente, siboyo, spinazie, curu, etcetera.

Tambe por hincá fruta manera apel, peer of anasa, pa bo tin un bon dosis di vitamina, mineral, antioxidante y fibra, y un rico smak sweet & sour.

- Sous na Midi. Pa condimenta bo sandwich, usa sous controla cu un cuchara chikito, nunca stret for di boter.
- Un toke di "oro likido". Si bo no ta bay come di biaha, hunta bo sandwich cu un tiki di azeta di oleifi cu ta wanta mas sin cambia e smak.

- Keshi lean. Uza semper keshinan cu poco vet, manera panela y Oaxaca, cu ta duna bon smak y ademas ta duna calcio, proteina y vitamina.
- Ketchup: No tin tanto calorìa paso tin poco vet, pero no haci di mas paso si tin hopi sucu y salo den dje.
- Smak den laag fini. Aunke ta duna mas smak, manteca, margarina of mayonnaise hunta den pan tambe ta dune hopi mas calorìa. Pesey evita nan mas cu por of baha man na consumo dor di djis hunta un laag fini riba e pan.

Colombiano contó chistes sin parar durante 72 horas en Miami

Miami (EFE)-El humorista colombiano José Ordóñez contó chistes sin parar durante 72 horas en Miami y aseguró que batió por octava ocasión su propio récord que era de 65 horas, para recaudar fondos destinados a una fundación de niños huérfanos desplazados por la violencia en Colombia.

Ordóñez, de 41 años, inició el maratón el jueves pasado en un salón de un hotel de Miami donde contó durante tres días cerca de 9.000 chistes que había recopilado, en presencia de cientos de latinoamericanos, según informó su coordinador de prensa.

“Sacaba fuerzas viendo a mi esposa Yasmith y a mis cuatro hijos rodeándome”, dijo el humorista que sólo descansaba cinco minutos cada hora y jugaba en ese momento fútbol para evitar el sueño.

Su hazaña fue transmitida por radio a varios países y el objetivo era que los radioescuchas donaran dinero a la Fundación Misericordia, Amor y Servicio (MAS), creada y dirigida por la iglesia Casa Roca que durante 20 años ha recibido y rehabilitado a niños huérfanos desplazados por la violencia en el país andino.

Ordóñez recibió las llaves de la ciudad de West Miami, en el condado de Miami-Dade, cuando terminaba la hora 36 de su récord.

Fiscalía de Ecuador pide a juez que canalice pedido de extradición de Santos

Quito - El fiscal general ecuatoriano, Washington Pesántez, afirmó ayer que dispuso que el agente fiscal se dirija al juez que lleva el caso del bombardeo del Ejército colombiano a un campamento de las FARC en Ecuador para que solicite la extradición del ex ministro de Defensa de Colombia Juan Manuel Santos. Pesántez declaró a los periodistas que “cuando se expide una orden de prisión preventiva y la persona imputada se encuentra fuera del territorio de un país lo que procede es pedir la extradición”.

Por eso, dispuso “que el agente fiscal se dirija al juez penal para que canalice la extradición” del ex ministro, sobre el que pesa una orden de prisión preventiva, con fines de investigación, por su implicación en el bombardeo colombiano.

El fiscal general explicó que, si acepta el pedido, el juez tendrá que dirigirse entonces al presidente de la Corte Nacional de Justicia, “que es el encargado de implementar la extradición del señor Santos”.

Pesántez, además, acusó al ex ministro

Conferencia Episcopal se opone a uniones civiles gays en Venezuela

Caracas - La Conferencia Episcopal Venezolana (CEV) en un comunicado rechaza el anteproyecto de Ley para la Equidad e Igualdad de Género que se discute en la Comisión de Familia de la Asamblea Nacional (AN). Los clérigos afirman que se “atenta gravemente contra las instituciones del matrimonio y la familia (...) al legitimar uniones del mismo sexo, otorgándoles los mismos efectos jurídicos y patrimoniales que a los del matrimonio”.

“Igualmente desconoce la protección constitucional al derecho de inviolabilidad de la vida humana, sea por medios anticonceptivos o por el aborto”. Invitan a una actitud vigilante de este nuevo proyecto de ley. “El futuro de nuestra sociedad depende del respeto y protección que se garantice al matrimonio y la familia”, concluye el texto.

Diálogo

La diputada Marelis Pérez, presidenta de la Comisión de Familia de la AN, expresó que en este anteproyecto no hay ningún articulado sobre el aborto ni las uniones civiles entre personas del mismo sexo.

“En la AN estamos en el deber de recibir todas las propuestas que se elaboren en la consulta y que surjan de la sociedad”.

“Además, el movimiento organizado de mujeres en Venezuela nos ha planteado la necesidad de que el debate sobre la interrupción voluntaria del embarazo se incluya en el nuevo Código Penal, donde está mencionada esta materia”.

Aparece en Venezuela piloto de avioneta secuestrada en Colombia

Valencia - El piloto de la avioneta que desapareció en pleno vuelo el domingo en el oeste de Colombia apareció en Venezuela y denunció que las otras dos personas que iban con él en el aparato lo secuestraron, informaron ayer fuentes policiales.

El piloto, identificado como Pedro Álvarez, contó que fue abandonado por sus presuntos captores en la localidad venezolana de Venturosa, explicó a la radio RCN el coronel Jorge Luis Ramírez, comandante policial del departamento occidental colombiano del Vichada, en la frontera con el país vecino.

Agentes colombianos fueron a rescatar a Álvarez, quien fue trasladado ayer en la madrugada a un puesto policial de Puerto Carreño, en Vichada, para que dé su testimonio sobre lo ocurrido, agregó el coronel Ramírez.

La avioneta, modelo Cessna, partió el domingo de Villavicencio, en el departamento central del Meta, con dirección hacia Puerto Carreño.

Según las primeras declaraciones del piloto, los dos pasajeros que lo acompañaban, no identificados aún, lo intimidaron en el trayecto de La Primavera a Puerto Carreño y lo obligaron a desviar la aeronave hacia Venezuela.

Después de aterrizar, los presuntos captores ocultaron la avioneta en un sitio boscoso, se llevaron a Álvarez en un vehículo y lo abandonaron cerca de Venturosa.

El coronel Ramírez dijo que se cree que los supuestos delincuentes “necesitaban movilizarse” y decidieron raptar a Álvarez para que los llevara.

La Policía colombiana va a solicitar ayuda a las autoridades venezolanas para encontrar la avioneta y a los presuntos secuestradores.

Presidenta argentina multiplicó su patrimonio en el 2008, según medios

Buenos Aires - La mandataria y su esposo y ex presidente, Néstor Kirchner, multiplicaron su patrimonio en casi un 160 por ciento durante el año pasado hasta unos 12 millones de dólares, según el diario ‘La Nación’.

De acuerdo con los datos publicados, a lo largo de los seis años que llevan en el poder, la pareja Kirchner pasó de tener activos por 6,8 millones de pesos a los actuales 46 millones.

Con base en la idílica ciudad patagónica de El Calafate, el matrimonio más poderoso de Argentina administra 12 departamentos, seis casas, cuatro locales y seis terrenos; está asociado en cuatro empresas y tiene depósitos bancarios por más de 32 millones de pesos, publicó el diario La Nación. Según La Nación, el salto interanual obedeció a la venta de 16 inmuebles - todos en la provincia sureña de Santa Cruz-, al aumento de sus saldos bancarios y a ‘la creación de dos nuevas empresas, Hotesur SA y Co Ma SA, con las que los Kirchner expandieron sus negocios hoteleros en El Calafate’. La información proviene de la declaración jurada anual que realizan los funcionarios ante la Oficina Anticorrupción, que es de carácter público pero que debe solicitarse y tiene un tiempo de entrega de unas 72 horas.

De acuerdo con el reporte de La Nación, sus ingresos anuales en el 2008 sumaron 16,2 millones de pesos (4,2 millones de dólares al tipo de cambio actual).

La remuneración promedio anual de los asalariados del sector privado argentino fue de 2.714 pesos (566 dólares) por mes en el 2008.

Taylor ta bisa na Den Haag

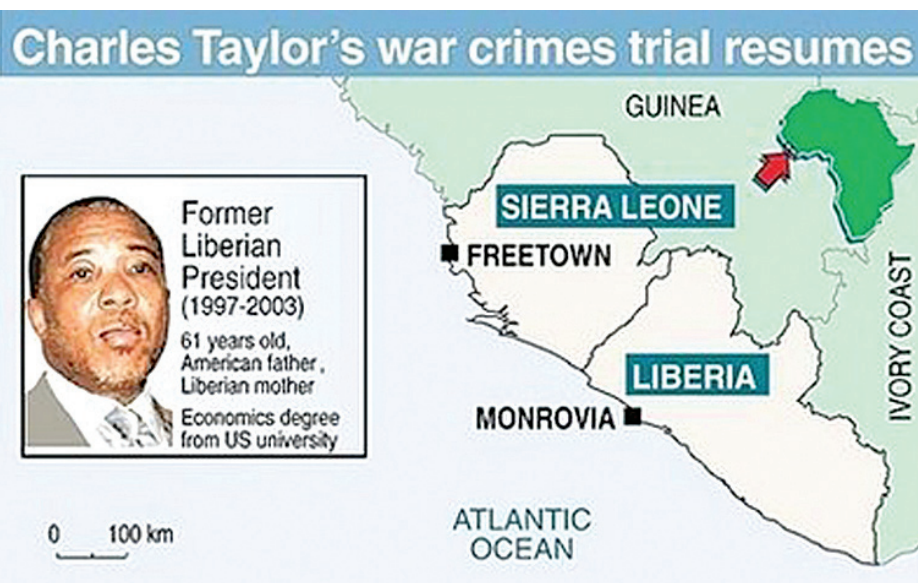

E acusacionnan no ta berdad

Den Haag - E ex Presidente di Liberia Charles Taylor a bisa ayera durante su huicio cu e acusacionnan contra dje ta basa riba mentiranan y informacionnan eroneo.

E prome lider Africano enhuicia door di un Corte Internacionak ta wordo acusa di 11 cargo di asesinato, tortura, violacion, esclavitud sexual, y uso di muchanan soldatnan y di sembra terror durante guerra civil di Siera Leone, cu a dura di 1991 te cu 2002.

Fiscalia di Corte – apoya door di Naciones Uni – ta segura cu Taylor a financia e rebeldenan cu a yude gana control di e pais bisiña pa kita asina e rekiza cu nan tin den mineralnan.

Cu un trahe gris y bril di glas scur, Taylor a papia cu seguridad mientras cu e tabata presenta na e panel di tres huez como e Presidente number 21 di Republica di Liberia. Esaki tabata prome biaha cu e ta subi e stul di testigo.

Su abogado, Courtenay Griffiths, a puntre mesora kico e ta pensa di e acusacionnan contra dje, cu ta inclui “di tur cos, desde terrorista pa violador”.

E ta resulta “hopi, hopi, hopi desafortuna cu fiscalia – debi na informacion incorrecto, falso, mentira, rumornan – ta asociami cu e nomber y descripcionnan ey,” Taylor a contesta. “Mi ta tata di 14 yiu, nietonan, mi a lucha henter mi bida pa haci loke mi ta kere ta corecto na interes di husticia

y reglanan di wega husto,” el a agrega. “Mi ta lamenta e descripcion cu ta haci di mi. E ta falso, malicioso.”

Ta calcula cu casi 500.000 persona tabata victima di asesinato, mutilacionnan sistematico y otro atrocidadnan durante guerra civil na Sierra Leone. Algun di e peor crimennan a wordo realisa door di gangnan di muchanan soldat cu a wordo forsa pa guli droga pa no realisa e horror di nan actonan.

Taylor lo trata di demostra durante su testimonio cu e 91 testigonan di fiscalia cu a declara den e huicidio desde januari di 2008 ta gaña.

Algun di nan ta segura cu Taylor a manda pistol pa e rebeldenan den saconan di aroz, violando un embargo di arma, y cu a cambio el haya e asina yama “diamantenan di sanger” mina pa civilnan forsa pa traha.

A sera funeraria cu a corta e pianan di cadaver pa e fit den caha

Washington (EFE) – Un Huez di South Carolina (USA) a ordena ayera cierre di un funerario cu na 2004 a amputa e pianan di un cadaver pa e por fit den un caha di morto, asina e corant local The State a duna di conoce.

Den e huicio, e propietario di e funeraria,

Michael Cave, a admiti cu un di su empleadonan a corta na altura mas cu mitar di pianan di e fayecido James Hines, cu tabata midi dos meter, sin informa su famia.

Según Cave, e trahador kier a “spaar e famia mas sufrimento”.

E caso a sali na cla un aña atras, ora cu un extrahador di e funeraria a informa e viuda di e sucedido.

Luna pasa, e comite di funerarianan di estado a dicidi di retira e licencia di funcionamiento na e compania funebre, situa den e localidad di Allendale.

Den e audiencia di ayera, Caye a pidi Huez pa no ratifica e decision ey, alegando cu nunca e tabata na altura cu un di su trahadornan a usa un zaag, y a sigura cu e funeraria semper a traha sin problema e cuater añanan prome cu e incidente.

SAINT ANTHONY

St. Anthony, perfect imitator of Jesus, who received from God the special power of restoring lost things, grant that I may find [name the item] which has been lost. At least restore to me peace and tranquility of mind, the loss of which has afflicted me even more than my material loss. To this favor, I ask another of you: that I may always remain in possession of the true good that is God. Let me rather lose all things than lose God, my supreme good. Let me never suffer the loss of my greatest treasure, eternal life with God. Amen.

Flamingo TV a drenta era digital

KRALENDIJK -- Djaweps último Flamingo TV a lansa oficialmente su servisionan nobo i a sera e proyekto eksitoso di faiber digital di Sand Dollar. Tur esaki a sosodé den un seshon informativo na Sunrise Bar/Restorant.

E anochi di informashon aki tabata den un forma festivo kaminda e tema tabata “e futuro Digital di Flamingo TV”. Diferente oradó a hiba palabra kaminda nan a papia tokante di nan envolvimentu i nan ròl den e realisashon eksitoso di e proyekto aki. Diferente Miembronan di prensa i relashonnan di Flamingo TV a bishitá e seshon aki.

E servisionan nobo ku Flamingo TV ta ofresé na su klientenan a inisiá den un proyekto di koperashon ku Sand Dollar Resort. E proyekto aki a keda desaroyá i implementá ku éksito kaminda a usa diferente teknologia pa a tèst e produkto aki. Den e próksimo simannan e produkto aki ta disponibel pa e pueblo Boneriano.

Segun Riccardo Vos, mènèdjèr general di Flamingo TV, e teknologia digital nobo aki ta trese masha bentaha pa e sistema di kabel pa Flamingo TV i tambe pa e ‘netwerk’ nobo di faiber ku Flamingo TV ta pasando den diferente bario.

E kalidat di e kanalnan di televishon analog ta drecha mucha mas mihó dor di e transporte di e señalnan den e ‘netwerk’ nobo di faiber. E stabilidat i liheresa di Internèt ta muchu mas mihó i lihé i e ‘netwerk’ di faiber ta ofresé kondishonnan perfekto pa ofresé servisio di telefon ku den e proyekto aki tambe lo bai keda di tèst.

Banda di e kanalnan digital nobo ku ta bai bini, ku ta un ampliashon riba e kanalnan ku tin kaba, lo bai ofresé tambe kanalnan di definishon haltu (high definition). E kalidat di e pantaya di e kanalnan digital i sigur di e kanalnan di ‘high definition’ ta inkomparabel ku loke e abonadonan tin awor, pasobra e resolushon di pantaya (beeldresolutie) ta hopi mas haltu. Pa por mira e kanalnan di ‘high definition’ bon, lo ta rekomendabel pa abonado tin un televishon spesial. E televishon aki ta sigurá e kalidat total di e resolushon di ‘high definition’ (HD).

Señora Charlotte Hart, ku ta presidente di e asosiasion di doñonan di Sand Dollar ta kalifiká e proyekto komo un éksito total. E kalidat di e televishon i di e kanalnan eksistente i esnan nobo ta stabil i perfekto.

Televishon di ‘high definition’ (HD) i e spit di Internèt ta traha konforme stándart ku merikanonan ta kustumá kuné na Estádos Unidos. E servisio di telefon ta limpi i di un kalidat haltu.

Señor Vos ta masha satisfecho ku e resultadonan. Nan tabata buska un partner ku ta krítiko pa a traha huntu kuné. Sand Dollar Resort ku tin un mayoria di doño merikano i ku ta kustumá ku stándart merikano haltu pa Internèt i televishon, tabata un partner perfekto pa yuda ehikutá e proyekto aki.

Riba e anochi aki señor Vos a splika ku a sera kontratonan di mas aña ku diferente

‘provider’ di kanal ku ta ofresé kanalnan digital i ‘high definition tv. Tin entre otro 11 kanal digital di HBO, 5 kanal di ‘high definiton’, Tin kanal di “home and garden tv high definition (HD)”, ‘food network HD i tambe 10 kanal di latino América. Banda di esaki lo ofresé tambe un kantidat di kanal ku ta faborito bou di hopi abonado tantu na e manera tradishonal komo riba televishon digital. E futuro digital di Flamingo TV lo trese un kambio grandi i signifkante pa Flamingo TV. E kambio aki tin influensia riba e loke nan ta ofresé na servisio, kalidat i stabilidat di servisio. E anochi aki ta un komienso, pero e pakete di servisio ku lo bai ofresé e abonadonan, lo keda ampliá, tiki tiki den e tempu benidero.

Pa medio di téknikanan digital lo bini tambe kanalnan hulandes den e pakete i tambe mas kanalnan di ‘high definition’. E kanalnan ta disponibel den diferente pakete. Señor Vos a duna di konosé ku na komienso di otro siman Flamingo TV lo kuminsá informá tokante su servisionan nobo via di medionan di komunikashon. Riba e anochi a duna demostrashon di e teknologia nobo, e kanalnan digital, i e servisio di telefon ku lo bini den futuro serkano. A transmití e anochi di informashon bibu fo’i kanal 24, ku a hasi su debut ku e transmishon bibu di NOS TV.

Inspekshon di Salu Públiko,

Ta konfiská remedi no-registrá i ilegalmente importá den botika na Boneiru

WILLEMSTAD—Outoridatnan a aktua na Boneiru kontra un botika ku tabatin bende remedinan ilegal. Inspekshon di Salú Públiko a informa ku importashon di remedi ta mará na reglanan stipulá den lei, pa por kontrolá, garantisá i salvaguardiá e seguridat i kalidat di remedi pa públiko. Ta alertá públiko regularmente pa kumpra remedi na botika so, pa asina e tin mas seguridat ku e loke ku e ta kumpra ta bini di fuente mas konfiabel. P'esei Inspekshon di Salu Públiko ta tuma e tarea di kontrolá importashon di remedi hopi na serio. Sigur si ta trata importashon dor di e profeshonalnan ku mester sa mihó. Despues di a haña sierto informashon di kosnan straño ku ta sosodé na Boneiru ku sierto remedi, i despues di a averiguá un ke otro ku Kuerpo di Duana na Boneiru, Inspekshon di Salú Públiko na luna di yuni a drenta akshon i a hasi un investigashon den un botika riba e isla ei. E rumornan a resultá di ta bèrdat i Inspekshon di Remedi a haña su mes obligá pa konfiská un kantidat de remedi ku e doño di botika, alabes botikario, a importá kontra e reglanan di Lei di Remedi. Ta resultá ku a importá e remedinan sin e pèrmit nesesario di Inspekshon di Remedi i pa kolmo ta resultá ku ta remedi ku mester konsiderá komo no-registrá na Antia. Den lei ta stipulá ku un botika tin ku kumpra remedi na e agensia lokal, ku di su banda por importá solamente e produkto ku ta registrá. Tambe lei ta stipulá ku ora un botikario mes kier importá remedi (si por ehèmpel e remedi ta 'out of stock' na agensia"), e tin mester di un pèrmit spesial di Inspektor di Remedi. Otro aspekto ku a hunga un ròl den e kaso aki ta ku tur deskripshon, tantu riba òf den e paki, tabata na un idioma ku no ta komun, manera ta eksigí pa registrashon. Sierto di e remedinan hasta tabata na Turko so.

Pa hiba un kontròl efektivo riba importashon i benta di remedi, Inspekshon di Remedi tin un masha bon koperashon ku Kuerpo di Duana riba tur isla di Antia, i tambe ku e departamentunan di Higièna di e servisionan di salú (GGD) riba e islanan. En konekshon ku e kaso di remedi ilegal na Boneiru, lo reafirmá i palabrá akuerdonan pa hasi e kontròl aki hasta mas efisiente i efikas.

Inspekshon di Salu Públiko ta keda vigilá pa seguridat di nos suministro di remedi keda garantisá.

Un atvertensha serio ta bai na tur importadó agensia di remedi i botikario pa ora nan kumpra remedi di afó òf lokalmente, nan averiguá ku e estableimentu ku ta bende nan e remedinan ta konfiabel i ku e estableimentu den su pais ta rekonosé ku pèrmit di gobièrnu. Tin un tendensia ku via Internet ta ofresé lote di remedi na preis absurdamente barata. Esaki mester laga un hende pensa ku algu no ta klòp. Inspekshon di Salú Públiko ta pidi i ta apresia ku agensianan importadó, botikarionan, pashèntnan i komunitat en general ta alerta i pa mèldu kaminda ku tin duda, asina a informa ayera.

Preisnan a subi den luna di yuni ku 0.7 porshento

WILLEMSTAD -- Preisnan a subi ku 0,7 porshento mas na luna di yuni kompará ku luna di mei 2009. Si kompará e periodo di e último 12 luna ku e periodo promé ku esei ta resultá ku preisnan a subi ku 5,5 porshento. Esaki ta sali na kla for di datonan ku a ser publiká pa Ofisina Sentral di Statistik. E sifra índise pa konsumidó na Kòrsou na luna di yuni a subi ku 0,7 porshento kompará ku luna di mei. Na luna di yuni tur kategorianan di gastu a subi. E subida di mas haltu a resultá den e grupo di transporte i komunikashon (+2,6%). Prinsipalmente e subida di diesel (+17%) i preis di gasolin a kontribuí na esaki, preis di outonan tambe a subi (+2,2%). Tabatin subi di preis leve den bibienda (+0,2%), rekreashon i desaroyo (+0,2%), muebel, aparato- i artikulonan doméstiko (+0,1%) i di paña i sapatu (+0,1%). Den e kategorianan aki entre otro dibertishon i kultura (+1,0%) i mantenshon di kura (+0,5%) a subi. Preis di bibida i sigaria tabata 0,1 porshento mas barata ku na mei, pa motibu ku preis di bibida a baha ku 0,3 porshento.

Hopi lágrima na despedida di sùrnan di Schijndel despues di 79 aña

WILLEMSTAD – Hopi lágrima tabatin na e despedida ofisial di sùrnan di Schijndel for di Kòrsou djasabra último. E órden di sùr lo bai for di Kòrsou despues di 79 aña.

Selebrante prinsipal tabata Mgr. Luis Secco kompañá pa diferente otro saserdote. Animashon tabata na enkargo di kor “Laus Deo et Mariae” bou di direkshon di sr. S. Keli. E organista tabata sr. J. Boodt. Di un manera maestral a interpretá misa na Latin pa kuater bos di J. Bühler. Fuera di e misa di Bühler tabatin kantikanan apropiá, manera Ban gradisí nos Dios, Klapt in de handen i Dank U. Promé ku predikashi Superiora General for di Ulanda a lesa algu for di reglamentu di sùrnan. A bini entre otro dilanti ku sùrnan mester bai kaminda tin mas nesesidat di nan. Kaminda no tin sufisiente desaroyo di hende.

Durante predikashi Mgr. Luis Secco a gradisí pa e hopi trabounan ku sùrnan a hasi. No solamente pa e trabou visibel, pero tambe p’e trabounan ku hopi bia ningun hende no sa di nan.

Na final un bia mas Mgr. Luis Secco a papia di bondat di sùrnan i a duna komo ehèmpel nan kas ku pa un suma hopi abou por a pasa den man di Obispado.

Despues di misa tabatin okashon pa tuma despedida di sùrnan den Sentro di Bario Mokapi i masha hopi hende a hasi uso di e oportunidat aki. Pa kasi un ora i mei hendenan a keda pasa pa tuma despedida, entre otro Gobernador di Antia Frits Goedgedrag i su kasá Dulce, promé minister Emily de Jongh-Elhage i otronan.

Anteriormente djasabra mainta Gobernador di Antia Frits Goedgedrag a kondekorá Sùr Engracia di e órden di sùrnan di Schijndel. E órden di sùr aki ku yama ofisialmente Congregatie Zusters van Liefde van Jezus en Maria, Moeder van Goede Bijstand, lo bandoná Kòrsou despues di tabata aki for di 1920.

Tabatin un seremonia kaminda a risibí e último grupo na Palasio di Gobernador i komo sorpresa tabatin un kondekorashon pa e grupo. Tabata sra. M.

Kong (Sùr Engracia) ku a tuma e kondekorashon na nòmber di e grupo. Gobernador Goedgedrag a bisa ku Sùr Engracia a hasi masha bon trabou den enseñansa na Kòrsou i sigur por kalifiká pa e distinshon aki. Na e seremonia tabata presente promé minister di Antia Emily de Jongh-Elhage i Obispu, mgr. Luis Secco.

Posibilidat ku situashon na hospital lo eskala

WILLEMSTAD – E posibilidat ta eksisti ku e situashon laboral na Sint Elisabeth Hospital lo eskala den e proksimo oranan. Ayera un ultimatum di e sindikato na e instituto a vense pa kumpli ku eksigensha laboral. No tabata kla mesora ki tipo di akshon por spera pero un bosero di e sindikato CBV a bisa ku no a tende nada di gerensha te awor.

Ayera manera primintí a kambia e akshon di sinta i tur trahadó a bisti un flanèl di e sindikato riba nan unifòrm. Tur kos ta kanando segun plan, ounke no a tende nada ainda di esnan ku mester tuma desishon. Loke si sra. Maria a sigurá ta ku nunca ta laga pashèntnan sinti ora tin akshon. Ta for di siman pasá e sindikato a anunsiá ku lo akshoná si no tende di gerensha kon a para ku negoshashon di nan CAO i tambe indexing, siendo ku ya tin 3 aña na mesa, loke tantu e sindikato komo e miembronan ta haña ta basta awor. Mester konsiderá e akshonnan aki komo akshon di protesta ku mester manda un mensahe kla ku no por trata asina ku trahadónan su kondishonnan di trabou. Ta parse ku ni e oumento di tarifa ku hospital a haña resientemente no ta sufisiente pa kumpli ku loke a palabrá kaba ku sindikato. Despues gerensia kier a kambia e plachi finansiero, e sindikato a mustra ku esaki no por. Di otro banda, hospital ta konfrontando problemanan finansiero kaminda e direktor aktual a mustra klaramente ku mester di alrededor di 15 mion adishonal pa aña pa e instituto den kuido operá finansieramente. Ta meramente pa e motibu aki ku a pidi adaptashon di tarifa ku 13%, ku ta ekivalente na 143 mion pa aña pa kumpli ku tur obligashon. Meskos ku diferente otro instansia den komunidat a keda wanta na un tarifa pa añanan, hospital su tarifa no a kambia for di aña 2000. E adaptashon ta un must, pasobra tur loke mester pa duna kuido a oumentá, segun e direktor. Banda di esei hospital mester duna kuido na esnan ku no tin seguro tambe, un pòst ku ta suma 3 mion pa aña.

Siman pasá minister di Salubridat, Omayra Leeflang, a mustra klaramente ku un di e solushonnan pa loke ta trata gastunan médiko ta integrashon di spesialistanan médiko den hospital, manera hopi pais na mundu. Aktualmente Gobièrnu ta studiando tambe un struktura di tarifa ku ta konta pa tur instansia. No mester lubidá ku aña pasá tarifa di spesialisista a subi te na 65 florin. Finalmente mester yega na un seguro general, kaminda ta eliminá fragmentashon, ta bini un instansia, un tarifa, ku ta pone ku kuido médiko ta bira mas aksesibel i pagabel den futuro.
